POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. MARCELLAIS rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR MARCELLAIS

MR. PRESIDENT: It is an honor today to speak on the anniversary of the Vietnam Era

Conflict. During the Sixty-first Legislative Assembly, SB 2192 was introduced to designate March 29th as Vietnam Veterans' Day. Each year the Governor shall issue a proclamation on March 29th in honor and remembrance of surviving and departed Vietnam Veterans, including the 198 soldiers from North Dakota whose names are listed on the Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Wall in Washington, DC, and those veterans who are or were Missing in Action or Prisoners of War.

There were 2.59 million American Veterans that served in country during the Vietnam Era conflict. I want to ask everyone to take a moment of silence to remember the 58,282 Vietnam Veterans Killed in Action and the more than 2,646 Americans who remain unaccountable from the conflict.

Some of the facts from the Vietnam Era Conflict include: 91% of Vietnam Veterans say they are glad they served; 745 of Vietnam Veterans said they would serve again, even knowing the results; five Americans killed in Vietnam were only 16 years of age; the oldest American killed in Vietnam was 62 years of age; without the helicopter, it would have taken three times as many troops to secure the 800 mile border along Cambodia and Laos; the Domino Theory was accurate, the Asian countries of the Philippines, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore and Thailand stayed free of Communism because of the United States commitment to Vietnam; one out of every ten Americans who served in Vietnam was a casualty; 75,000 Vietnam Veterans were severely disabled; Vietnam Veterans were the best educated forces our nation has ever been sent to combat, 79% had a high school education or better; 87% of Americans hold Vietnam Veterans in high esteem; the American military did not lose one major battle during our entire involvement, including Tet 68, which was a major military defeat for the Viet Cong (VC) and North Vietnam Army (NVA); the fall of Saigon happened two years after the American military left Vietnam, we fought to an agreed stalemate in 1973; there were almost twice as many casualties in Southeast Asia after the fall of Saigon in 1975 than there were during the ten years the United States was involved in Vietnam, in essence, the Peace Movement "killed" more people than the United States did in Vietnam; there were 151 Medal of Honor recipients; there were eight females killed in Vietnam; following the Paris Peace Accords of 1973, 591 American Prisoners of War (POWs) were returned during Operation Homecoming.

The United States listed about 1,350 Americans as Prisoners of War or Missing in Action, and roughly 1,200 Americans were reported Killed in Action and Body Not Recovered. The National League of Families created the Prisoner of War and Missing in Action (POW/MIA) flag in 1971 when the war was still in progress.

"River of Tears"

by Mike Birdwell

It has been many years
And a river of tears,
Since the last gold star mom
Lost her son in Vietnam.

But memories still last,
Most won't talk when asked
About the war we lost
At far too great a cost

Many had never been far from home
Until they wound up in a free fire zone,
Halfway around the world alone
They realized there is no place like home

They proudly represented the home of the brave,
Though most had just begun to shave
They answered the United States of America's call,
So their allies freedom would not fall

They fought from Saigon
To the DMZ
Thousands were killed
By an enemy they could not see

This war wasn't fought
Like the ones on TV
Land mines, snipers, and booby traps
Were the tools of the enemy

The lucky ones returned home in a year
And thought they had no more to fear
Most were very young and believed,
The nation's thanks they would receive

But the nation turned their backs
On these brave men and women
Most would never be the same again

They had done their duty
No matter what the cost
But they shouldered the blame
Because the war was lost

So their story was never told
They locked it inside
They had survived the war
But their ideals had died

These men and women learned a lesson
In that foreign land
They learned the greatest of all Commandments
Love they fellow man and woman

In closing, I want to thank my Vietnam Veterans for serving the United States of America and I want to wish all Vietnam Veteran Brothers and Sisters a welcome home, which they never received.

Thank you, God Bless America, God Bless the great state of North Dakota and God Bless all our veterans that served.

Page 1, line 1, after "A BILL" replace the remainder of the bill with "for an Act to amend and reenact section 20.1-03-17 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to computerized issuance of game and fish licenses.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 20.1-03-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

20.1-03-17. Issuance of licenses - Who to issue - County auditor may appoint agents to receive service fees - Disposition of proceeds - Continuing appropriation.

All hunting, fur-bearer, fishing, and taxidermists' licenses must be issued by county auditors, the director, deputy director, and bonded game wardens. The county auditors, deputy director, and each bonded game warden shall send the director all license fees. For each license the county auditor issues, the county auditor shall collect the authorized charges and record them in the county auditor's record of cash received. Unless the county auditor and the board of county commissioners execute a written agreement providing for the disposition of compensation for the issuance of licenses, the county auditor is entitled to be reimbursed, as compensation, twenty-five cents for the issuance of each of the first one thousand resident hunting, fishing, or fur-bearer licenses issued each year and fifteen cents for the issuance of each resident hunting, fishing, or fur-bearer license issued in excess of the first one thousand licenses issued each year; one dollar for the issuance of each nonresident hunting or fur-bearer license; twenty-five cents for the issuance of each nonresident fishing license; and ten cents for the issuance of each nonresident general game license. The compensation due for the issuance of licenses is hereby appropriated as a standing and continuing appropriation from the game and fish fund for the purposes of this section. By March 1, 2015, each county auditor shall implement a computerized online licensing system approved by the department. The county auditor is responsible for any equipment, supplies, and technical support associated with selling licenses online.

The county auditor may appoint agents to distribute hunting and fishing licenses or stamps. A county auditor may not provide hunting or fishing licenses to agents located outside this state, but the director may provide licenses to agents located outside this state if there are no agents located a reasonable distance within this state where nonresidents may obtain licenses. The director and county auditor may require agents to show evidence of adequate financial security before the agents are appointed. Adequate financial security may be evidenced by a letter of credit, cash deposit, or bond. Agents may be bonded through the state bonding fund. The agents may charge purchasers a service fee of fifty cents for each license. Service fees may be retained by the agent. The agent shall return the remainder of the license fees to the county auditor for deposit with the county treasurer, or to the director if the agent is appointed by the director, at least once each month, and not later than three days after the close of the month. Notwithstanding section 26.1-21-11, if a claim against the state bonding fund is not filed within sixty days of the expiration of the reporting period provided in this section, the claim is waived. Deposits are to be accompanied by a report showing the amounts received from the sale of each type of license, the amount retained, and the net amounts deposited. The county treasurer shall credit the fees so deposited to a separate account and shall hold the fees, subject to warrant for payment thereof drawn by the county auditor in favor of the director. The director shall deposit all license or stamp fees received with the state treasurer to be credited to the game and fish fund. By March 1, 2016, each agent appointed by a county auditor to distribute hunting and fishing licenses or stamps shall implement a computerized online licensing system approved by the department. The agent is responsible for any equipment, supplies, and technical support associated with selling licenses online."
