POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. CARLSON rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE CARLSON

MR. SPEAKER: Members of the Assembly, today we honor and celebrate the birthdate of the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr. Thirty-two years ago, President Ronald Reagan signed Martin Luther King, Jr. Day into law to celebrate the life and work of the greatest civil rights leader this country has ever known. Dr. King was instrumental in the civil rights movement and promoting the idea that nonviolent demonstrations could be used to create positive change for many Americans. Unfortunately, we kind of lost that in the Ferguson incident, but his message should still ring true. When President Reagan spoke of Dr. King he said, "Freedom is not something to be secured in any one moment of time. We must struggle to preserve it every day. And freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction." As we proceed through the remainder of the 64th Legislative Assembly I challenge you to be mindful of the ideals set forth by the late Dr. King and President Reagan. As we carry on leading and serving the people of the Great State of North Dakota let us preserve the freedoms that we have come to know and live by.

MOTION

REP. VIGESAA MOVED that the remarks of Rep. Carlson be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. ONSTAD rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE ONSTAD

MR. SPEAKER: Thank you Mr. Speaker: "We must learn to live together as brothers or perish together as fools." Martin Luther King, Jr.

Today we honor Martin Luther King Jr. We celebrate the life and legacy of a man who brought hope and healing to America. We commemorate as well, the timeless values he taught us through his example — the values of courage, truth, justice, compassion, dignity, humility and service that so radiantly defined Dr. King's character and empowered his leadership.

We commemorate the universal, unconditional love, forgiveness and nonviolence that empowered his revolutionary spirit. We commemorate Dr. King's inspiring words, because his voice and his vision filled a great void in our nation, and answered our collective longing to become a country that truly lived by its noblest principles. Yet, Dr. King knew that it wasn't enough just to talk the talk, that he had to walk the walk for his words to be credible.

And so we commemorate on this holiday the man of action, who put his life on the line for freedom and justice every day; the man who braved threats and jail and beatings; and who ultimately paid the highest price to make democracy a reality for all Americans.

It was an entire revolution in the history of our nation and should be embodied in our present day lives.

Thank you Mr. Speaker.
