SEN. FLAKOLL MOVED the nomination of Senator Dever for the office of President Pro Tem, which motion prevailed.

REMARKS OF SENATOR TIM FLAKOLL

MR. PRESIDENT: I am pleased and honored to nominate our friend, Senator Dick Dever, for President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

Senator Dever was first elected to the Senate in 2000 and has served with distinction for more than 14 years now. In addition to the Senate, Senator Dever has been involved in his community his entire life, including: Farwest Rotary Club, Board of Volunteer Caregiver's Exchange, Council of State Governments' BILLD Fellow, ND NFIB - 2004 ND Small Business Champion of the Year, Life Member of the VFW and AmVets, Bis-Man Chamber, 2007 Legislator of the Year, Mental Health America, Advisory Board of the Bismarck Transition Center, Elder at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church. Senator Dever has also served our nation in the US Army.

It has been a great honor to have known and worked closely with Senator Dever. He is honest, moral, humble, loyal, encouraging, and inspiring. He is always the quintessential gentleman in every sense of the word. Those new members to this august body will learn early on that Senator Dever also gives some of the best floor speeches you will ever hear.

In the Senate, Senator Dever chairs the Government and Veterans Affairs Committee and the Employment Committee. This past interim he also chaired the Employee Benefits Committee.

Other standing committees he has served on include the Human Services and Political Subdivisions Committees. His life's work in public service has left an indelible mark, not just on our state. His election today is one way to appropriately recognize those efforts.

Senator Dever and his wife Pam have three children and eight grandchildren.

Senator Dever will make the ideal President Pro Tempore. His experience as chairman will serve him well and he has a well-deserved reputation for being fair and firm in his role when he presides. I know that when he presides he will make sure that the decorum and focus on issues will be preserved. I am confident he will ensure that the spirit of the Senate will be maintained during his tenure.

Therefore, it is my honor to nominate a great Senate leader, Senator Dick Dever, to the position of President Pro Tempore of the North Dakota Senate.

MOTION

SEN. TRIPLETT MOVED the nomination of Senator Grabinger for the office of President Pro Tem, which motion prevailed.

REMARKS OF SENATOR CONNIE TRIPLETT

MR. PRESIDENT: I hereby place into nomination for president pro tempore of the North Dakota Senate the name of John Grabinger. Senator Grabinger represents District 12. He was first elected to the Senate in 2012 and has served one term, during which he was a member of the Judiciary Committee and the Political Subdivisions Committee. During the recent interim, he served on the Commission on Alternatives to Incarceration.

There are some days on which it is a disadvantage to be a member of the minority party, Mr. President, including all of those days on which we vote on substantive issues. But this is not one of those days. Given the small size of my caucus and the fact that we use seniority as the selection process for our nominee, it is possible to serve one term and be next-in-line for nomination to this prestigious post, while members of the majority caucus may have to serve for decades before being nominated.

For the purists among us, I will acknowledge that Senator Grabinger came into the Senate in a class that includes Senator Axness and Senator Sinner. Technically, Senator Axness edges out my nominee by virtue of the alphabet, but since both Senator Axness and Senator Sinner tried to leave this august body during the recent election process, our very wise Chief of Staff suggested we nominate Senator Grabinger in recognition of his commitment to stay among us.

Despite his brief tenure in the Senate, Senator Grabinger is well-qualified to serve as president pro tem. He arrived with a wealth of civic experience in his hometown of Jamestown, including service on school board, church board, and the Jamestown City Council. He is the owner of a business known as Grabinger Marine. He has spent much of his career working to keep the family business afloat. (Pun courtesy of Senator Murphy.) Senator Grabinger's participation as an engaged citizen in the legislative process goes back more than 20 years. He understands the legislative process intimately.

Mr. President, I am very pleased to nominate Senator John Grabinger for the office of president pro tempore.

MOTION

SEN. GRABINGER MOVED that the Senate cast a unanimous ballot for Senator Dever as President Pro Tem, which motion prevailed on a voice vote.

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that a committee of two be appointed to escort the newly elected President Pro Tem to the rostrum, which motion prevailed. The President appointed Sens. Flakoll and Marcellais.

OATH OF OFFICE

PRESIDENT WRIGLEY ADMINISTERED the Oath of Office to President Pro Tempore Dever.

REMARKS OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE DEVER

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Thank you to the people of District 32 for allowing me the privilege of occupying the seat in this chamber that is owned by "We the People" of District 32.

Thank you to Senator Flakoll and Senator Grabinger for those very kind comments that could just as appropriately have been said about each of you.

Thank you to all of you, my friends and colleagues, for entrusting me with the honor of this responsibility.

There is nothing more important to me in this world than my family. Thank you to my wife, Pam, for being my partner in life and my partner in public service.

Thank you to Pam, and to our three children, Justin, Adam, and Heather, for being my best friends and most loyal supporters. When you're a candidate, everybody is your friend. When you lose an election, you find out who your friends really are. Each of the three times I tested that theory, their love and support only grew stronger.

Thank you to our three children and their spouses for the pure joy that comes with having 10 grandchildren – Lily and Reagan, Daisy and Reese, Olivia and David, Sylvia and Daniel, and Cameron and Julia.

Thank you to those 10 grandchildren for putting purpose in my life. As we conduct the business of the state it is often their future that is in my thoughts.

This is a very special place. During the session, it is a real beehive of activity. During the interim, it becomes a place of solitude. It is then that I like to come into the chamber and take a seat behind the rail. I look at the names on the board and I look around at the seats in the chamber. I think of each of you. I think of your families. I think of the communities that you serve. I think of the work that you do.

I have the privilege of serving with farmers and ranchers, and Doctors and Lawyers, and teachers and small businesspeople, and people from all walks of life. We come together in this place to form the policymaking branch of our government.

Winston Churchill once said of Democracy that "it is the worst form of government in the world; except for all the rest." It is clumsy. It is awkward. It is government by committee. It depends for its success on the dedication and the commitment of those who participate in it. Here in North Dakota, it is a success.

As I sit in that chair, I think also of those who came before us. I imagine their voices as they dealt with the issues of their day. I think also of those yet to come and the issues they may deal with.

Several years ago, I heard a former legislator comment that on his departure from the legislature he learned that the retirement of a legislator has about the same impact as pulling your finger from a bucket of water.

Success in the Legislature is a matter of relationships. Individuals make contributions, but it is in coming together that we accomplish great things for the people of North Dakota.

We can take comfort knowing that, God willing, in the generations of our grandchildren, and of theirs, that others will come to occupy these seats with the same dedication and commitment that you and I share.

When I speak to groups about the legislative process, I sometimes like to say this, "It may come as a surprise to you, but, I have opinions. When you think about it, you realize that I am elected to have opinions. So are the other 140 legislators. If I don't accept that sometimes their opinions are different than mine, I would get eaten alive."

You know that when I sit in that seat over there, I will express my opinions. You can expect that when I occupy the seat up here, I will do my very best to allow you the opportunity to express yours.

It is with that respect for you, for the people we serve, and for this legislative process, that I so very gratefully and with all humility, accept the honor of the responsibility of serving as your President Pro Tem.

Thank you very much!

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that the remarks of Sens. Flakoll, Triplett, and Dever be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that the Senate adopt as temporary rules the Senate and Joint Rules of the 63rd Legislative Assembly, as adopted on Wednesday, December 5, 2012, which motion prevailed.
