REMARKS OF MAJORITY LEADER CARLSON

Thank you everyone, welcome, we want to welcome you families back to the people's house, the people's house for your loved ones who served with honor and did the people's work of creating a strong state of North Dakota. For us, this is a day of celebration because we celebrate our colleagues who served before us. I also understand that it is a day of mourning and sorrow for the loss that you have and our thoughts and prayers go out to you as families. This is a special place and it is a privilege to be here, I understand, and if you went through it as a young child and your parent was there that they left home and they came to this place for eighty days and they got totally engrossed in what was happening here. It was a sacrifice for maybe their business, maybe not being at some of the activities that the kids had, but the purpose of this place is to have citizens run the state of North Dakota. They gave us their time and you shared them with us. This gets harder for me every time because the longer I've been here the more people and families are sitting up here that I served with. This is family, we're family just like your family. You build friends, you build acquaintances, you build life-time relationships and every time one of them passes away it's a loss for us. But we're thrilled you're here because this is a great day for us. We hope you appreciate the time that you have to maybe even see old friends or friends that you haven't seen for a long time that your families served with. This is a very special place. We honor their commitment and we honor their service. We always have pride in ourselves that North Dakota is based on a citizen legislature. We do our work, we pass our laws, we live under the same laws that we pass, and we go back home to our neighborhoods and our communities. We want that model to never change. We want you to know that we pray for you. This is a tough time to lose a loved one and the thoughts and prayers of our chambers and the citizens of North Dakota goes out to you for your loss. But again, this is a special day and we're really glad you're here because sometimes we forget how special it really is and all the good work the people did before us. They set the table for us to make this state even better, and by the laws they passed and the time they invested, they made this a better place and a better state. Thank you for coming and a special thank you goes out to the choir and to the Damschens. Thank you for coming and God bless this Great State of North Dakota.
