1       SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 50-25.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
2 and enacted as follows:

3       Civil remedy for financial exploitation - Damages - Commencement of action.

4       1. A vulnerable adult who has been financially exploited has a cause of action against 5       any perpetrator and may recover damages for that exploitation. The action may be 6       brought in a court of competent jurisdiction by:

7       a. The vulnerable adult;

8       b. The vulnerable adult's guardian;

9       c. Any person acting on behalf of the vulnerable adult with the consent of the 10       vulnerable adult; or

11       d. The personal representative of the estate of a deceased victim.

12       2. An action for financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult must be proven by clear and 13       convincing evidence. If financial exploitation is proven, the court shall award to the 14       plaintiff actual damages and reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including 15       reasonable fees for the services of a conservator devoted to the litigation of a claim
16       brought under this section.

17       3. If the financial exploitation of the vulnerable adult by the perpetrator involved
18       oppression, fraud, deception, or actual malice, the court may award exemplary
19       damages in accordance with subsection 5 of section 32-03.2-11.

20       4. An action for damages for financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult must be 21       commenced within four years after the plaintiff discovers or, through exercise of 22       reasonable diligence, should have discovered the facts constituting the financial 23       exploitation.
