4           however, an individual using a surveillance camera has seven days from notice
5           by a law enforcement officer to direct or shield the camera so as to not capture 6           an image from another person's dwelling or accessory structure before there is 7           an offense.

8           SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 12.1-31 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
9 and enacted as follows:

10           Economic harm prohibited - Penalty.

- 11           1. An individual may not commit a physical act constituting the commission of a 12           misdemeanor offense, when done intentionally to cause direct or indirect economic 13           harm in excess of one thousand dollars to the government or to a person.
14           2. Economic harm under this section does not include court, prosecution, incarceration,
15           or law enforcement costs. The prosecution must plead and prove an underlying 16           misdemeanor offense the individual committed, and a jury must be instructed and 17           make a special finding regarding the elements of this section before an individual may 18           be found guilty. This section may not be used as a basis for a conspiracy, accomplice,
19           or attempt charge.
20           3. This section does not apply to constitutionally protected activity. If an individual claims 21           to have been engaged in a constitutionally protected activity, the court shall determine 22           the validity of the claim as a matter of law and, if found valid, shall exclude evidence of 23           the activity.
24           4. Violation of this section is a class C felony.

25           SECTION 3. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure.
