

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSESixty-fifth Legislative Assembly

* * * * *

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. SCHNEIDER rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE SCHNEIDER

MR. SPEAKER: As today is Martin Luther King Day, may I read you some of his words? The quotes are not red, or blue, but red, white, and blue—and they pertain to our work here. Martin Luther King said:

•“The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy.”

•He said, “Everybody can be great...because anybody can serve. You don’t have to have a college degree to serve. You don’t have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love.” And he said,

•“There comes a time when one must take a position that is neither safe, nor politic, nor popular, but he must take it because conscience tells him it is right.

•“People fail to get along,” he said, “because they fear each other; they fear each other because they don’t know each other; they don’t know each other because they have not communicated with each other.”

In honor of Martin Luther King Day today, let’s resolve to continue to communicate with each other, respect each other’s positions of conscience and courage, and be of service to others. May we have a dream, do right, and promote justice.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. CARLSON rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE CARLSON

MR. SPEAKER: One of the shortest addresses in Presidential history, Abraham Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address, says it all- “Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.”

Then he added- “that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.”

In 2016, I had the privilege of walking the battlefields of Gettysburg and this speech came to life.

On November 2, 1983 Ronald Reagan signed a bill making the birthday of Martin Luther King Jr. a National Holiday. His remarks must be remembered about Martin Luther King Jr.’s legacy and impact on our nation:

“Dr. King had awakened something strong and true, a sense that true justice must be colorblind, and that among white and black Americans, as he put it, ‘Their destiny is tied up with our destiny, and their freedom is inextricably bound to our freedom; we cannot walk alone.’ ”

His nonviolent campaigns brought about redemption, reconciliation, and justice. He taught us that only peaceful means can bring about peaceful ends.

America is a more democratic nation, a more just nation, a more peaceful nation because Martin Luther King, Jr., became her preeminent nonviolent commander.
