POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. LANING rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE LANING

MR. SPEAKER: Many times we in the legislature catch a little heat on things we do and aren't necessarily appreciated, but recently I received a letter from an old classmate of mine and it was quite complimentary, and if possible I would like to read it to the body to encourage you as we start our legislative session. The letter reads:

I live in LaMoure, North Dakota, the great state where God goes on his vacations. I'd like to talk about taxes. I realize that, like death, they're inescapable. But. There's always a but. My property taxes jumped from $1300/year to $5000/yr in just over 5 years. I'd call that extreme. I'm a veteran. A veteran of two tours of duty at DaNang, Viet Nam. And I have service disabilities that allow for my property taxes, thanks to action taken by North Dakota legislators, to be waived. If not for that action, we wouldn't be able to keep our home. The North Dakota legislative assembly was thoughtful enough and kind enough to show its thanks to service veterans long before it became fashionable. (I was spit on when I deplaned at SeaTac in 1969.) For instance, in 1971 when I was honorably discharged from the United States Air Force, the State of North Dakota sent me a check in the approximate amount of $450. I don't remember the exact dollar amount, but it was enough to allow me to buy a used Rambler so I had transportation while attending Concordia College, Moorhead. I don't pay sales tax when buying an automobile. I don't have to pay for renewing the tags on my or my wife's car. What a great state we live in! I would like to sincerely thank those legislators, past and present, liberal or conservative, Democrat or Republican or Independent. I would like to say thank you for caring. For acting in the best interests of veterans. Thank you from my heart to you all. For me, for my family, for all veterans. Thank you so very much. Keep up the good and proper work that makes this the best state. There's North Dakota. And then there are the other 49. Rod and Pam Lammer

REQUEST

REP. LOUSER REQUESTED that the remarks of Rep. Laning be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. BEADLE rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE BEADLE

MR. SPEAKER: I have the honor today of recognizing the historic greatness of the North Dakota State University Football team. On Saturday, our land grant institution set a record by winning their 7th FCS National Championship, defeating Eastern Washington by a score of 38-24. With this win NDSU passes Georgia Southern for the most in Division 1 FCS history, and also brings the total national titles for NDSU up to 15 in school history.

NDSU was led by Walter Payton Award finalist Easton Stick. The senior quarterback ran for three touchdowns and threw for two touchdowns, both to Darrius Shepherd, the game's Most Outstanding Player. The win also brought Easton Stick's career record to 49-3, which passed former NDSU great Brock Jensen for the most wins by a QB in FCS history.

Stick and Shepherd were two of the 24 seniors that led this team to an undefeated, 15-0 season. This team is only the 5th team to finish a season in the FCS undefeated, joining the national champion 2013 squad. This team is not just about athletics, but also has experienced tremendous academic success. These are student athletes, after all.

The team this year maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.1 and eighteen student-athletes graduated this winter, and six others who played this fall already had their bachelor's degree. Congratulations to these fine students and to the team as a whole.

We need to give special recognition to Head Coach Chris Klieman. This victory gave the coach 4 championships in 5 seasons, and has tied him for the most titles as a head coach in FCS history. In December he accepted the head coaching position at Kansas State, and Bison Nation wishes him great success in his new adventure. Congratulations to new Head Coach Matt Entz as he keeps the program moving forward.

Mr. Speaker, this is a great accomplishment. These players, coaches and staff deserve our congratulations on what they have done so far, and best wishes for continued success next season. Thank you.

REQUEST

REP. LOUSER REQUESTED that the remarks of Rep. Beadle be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.
