POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. J. LEE rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR J. LEE

MR. PRESIDENT: I would like to share with the members of the Senate a Proclamation honoring June Herman, whom many of us knew to be a wonderful person, a velvet hammer in the best sense of the word. I was just telling somebody that this Proclamation will be signed by the Governor later today.

Proclamation Honoring June Herman

WHEREAS, June Herman worked for the American Heart Association (AHA) for 37 years, beginning her career as a field director in California, then moving to North Dakota to serve as the Executive Director for the North Dakota/South Dakota Affiliate; and

WHEREAS, June spent the last 20 years working on healthcare and public health policy change for the AHA and serving as a tireless advocate on behalf of North Dakota heart disease and stroke patients and their families; and

WHEREAS, June was THE most prolific Advocacy Director among all AHA staff nationwide; and

WHEREAS, like any great leader, June would never say she was successful on her own, always quick to share credit with the many AHA volunteers, partner organizations, Lawmakers and Administration leaders who made the new laws possible; and

WHEREAS, North Dakota residents are living in a healthier state due to June's remarkable policy success including, but not limited to: statewide Stroke Systems of Care, CPR in Schools, STEMI heart attack systems of care, Medicaid Expansion, statewide Smokefree, funding for Tobacco Prevention Programs, Physical Education standards and requirements, Public Access Defibrillation, Cardiac Ready Communities, Rural Telehealth programs, and many others; and

WHEREAS, June made a profound impact on the many AHA North Dakota volunteers, past and present, who have given their time, treasure, passion and expertise on so many policy issues, traveling to Bismarck and making their voices heard in the State Capitol, sometimes with the media; and

WHEREAS, June was a recognized and stalwart figure in the Capitol during Legislative Session and during Interim Committee Sessions, always available to provide insights and sometimes do battle (in that very June way) with lawmakers; and

WHEREAS, June passed away after an unexpectedly brief battle with pancreatic cancer on November 11, 2018, she will be greatly missed by family, friends and colleagues, and leaves an indelible mark as a relentless warrior for making the world and her beloved North Dakota a better, healthier place.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim February 11, 2019 a day to honor June Herman in the State of North Dakota.
