Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, "There is a time for everything,
And a season for every activity under the heavens:
A time to be born and a time to die,
A time to plant and a time to uproot,
A time to kill and a time to heal,
A time to tear down and a time to build,
A time to weep and a time to laugh,
A time to mourn and a time to dance,
A time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
A time to search and a time to give up,

A time to keep and a time to throw away,
 A time to tear and a time to mend,
 A time to be silent and a time to speak,
 A time to love and a time to hate,
 A time for war and a time for peace."

"Well Done" by The Afters

What will it be like when my pain is gone
 And all the worries of this world just fade away?
 What will it be like when You call my name
 And that moment when I see You face to face?
 I'm waiting my whole life to hear You say
 Well done, well done, my good and faithful one
 Welcome to the place where you belong
 Well done, well done, my beloved child
 You have run the race and now you are home
 Welcome to the place where you belong
 What will it be like when tears are washed away
 And every broken thing will finally be made whole?
 What will it be like when I come into Your glory
 Standing in the presence of a love so beautiful?
 I'm waiting my whole life for that day
 I will live my life to hear You say
 Well done, well done, my good and faithful one
 Welcome to the place where you belong
 Well done, well done, my beloved child
 You have run the race and now you are home
 Welcome to the place where you belong . . . well done!

Let us pray: Thank you Lord for this day when we can come together to remember our former colleagues.

We ask, Lord, that You will be with us through this service, and continue to comfort and bless these families who are with us today. We join our hearts and echo Your words, "Well Done".

In Jesus name we pray. Amen

Memorial Poem

"Memories Live Forever"

Composed and read by Representative Lisa Meier

A bouquet of beautiful memories sprayed
 With a million tears.

Wishing God could have spared you,
 If just for a few more years.

It does not take a special day,

For us to think of you,

In prayers we say,

Are offered for you.

We cannot bring the old days back,

When we are all together,

Our family chain is broken now,

But memories live forever.

Remarks

Majority Leader Chet Pollert

To everyone who is here today, welcome to the North Dakota House of Representatives. We are here to honor a group of men and women who served their communities well. As members of the people's house, they worked not only as legislators but as veterans, bankers, attorneys, teachers, and farmers. These regular citizens advocated for their communities by taking 4 months every other year to come to Bismarck and do the people's work. They devoted their lives to making North Dakota a better place to live. Much of the success our state is experiencing now is due to the hard work of those who came before us, so it is more than fitting that we take some time today to honor the legislators we have lost in the last biennium. It seems that everyone who serves in the legislature shares a special connection. We all understand what an incredible privilege it is to serve our communities and state, but we also understand the sacrifices that our families make while we serve. My daughter is grown now, but when she was in third grade I had gone home for the weekend during the legislative session. We had gone to a community fundraiser in Pingree for a close friend who was fighting cancer, when a storm started rolling in and I decided to head back to Bismarck early. As I was getting ready to leave, my daughter, with tears in her eyes, looked at me and said, "I'm sick and tired of sharing you with Bismarck!" I think all of us here today can relate to this story in one way or another. Today, my children and the families of all the other legislators know the sacrifices that families make. Here in North Dakota, governing really is a team effort and legislators would never be able to work without the support of our families. So, for the families here today, thank you. Thank you for sharing your husband, wife, father, mother, grandfather, or grandmother with the North Dakota House of Representatives. Your love and support helped make North Dakota a better place. This house is your House and we are honored with your presence. Please join us in the Great Hall after this service to exchange stories and remember the legislators we lost.
