

Sixty-seventh
Legislative Assembly of North Dakota

HOUSE BILL NO. 1262

Introduced by

Representatives Boschee, Buffalo, Dobervich, Ista, Mock, Schneider

Senators Bakke, Oban

1 A BILL for an Act to amend and reenact sections 34-01-20 and 34-11.1-04 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code, relating to whistleblowers and public health and safety; and to provide a penalty.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

4 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 34-01-20 of the North Dakota Century Code is
5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 34-01-20. Employer retaliation prohibited - Civil action for relief - Penalty.

- 7 1. An employer may not discharge, discipline, threaten discrimination, or penalize an 8 employee regarding the employee's compensation, conditions, location, or privileges 9 of employment because:
- 10 a. The employee, or a person acting on behalf of an employee, in good faith, 11 reports a violation or suspected violation of federal, state, or local law, ordinance,
12 regulation, or rule to an employer, a governmental body, or a law enforcement 13 official.
- 14 b. The employee is requested by a public body or official to participate in an 15 investigation, a hearing, or an inquiry.
- 16 c. The employee refuses an employer's order to perform an action that the 17 employee believes violates local, state, or federal law, ordinance, rule, or 18 regulation. The employee must have an objective basis in fact for that belief and 19 shall inform the employer that the order is being refused for that reason.
- 20 d. The employee reports to an employer, a governmental body, or a law 21 enforcement official a reasonable concern about a workplace violation of a 22 government health or safety policy or rule or about an otherwise significant 23 workplace threat to health or safety related to a public health emergency.

1 e. The employee voluntarily wears the employee's own personal protective 2 equipment, if the personal protective equipment provides a higher level of 3 protection than the equipment provided by the employer, is recommended by a 4 federal, state, or local public health agency, and does not render the employee 5 incapable of performing the employee's job or prevent the employee from fulfilling 6 the duties of the employee's position.

7 2. An employer ~~who~~that willfully violates this section is guilty of an infraction.

8 3. An employee asserting a violation of this section may bring a civil action for injunctive 9 relief or actual damages, or both, within one hundred eighty days after the alleged 10 violation, completion of proceedings under subsection 4, or completion of any 11 grievance procedure available to the employee under the employee's collective 12 bargaining agreement, employment contract, or any public employee statute, rule, or 13 policy, whichever is later. If the court determines that a violation has or is occurring 14 under this section, the court may order, as the court deems appropriate, reinstatement 15 of the employee, backpay for no more than two years after the violation, reinstatement 16 of fringe benefits, temporary or permanent injunctive relief, or any combination of 17 these remedies. Interim earnings or amounts earnable with reasonable diligence by 18 the employee, from the same employer, must reduce backpay otherwise allowable. In 19 any action under this section, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the 20 prevailing party as part of the costs of litigation. An employee whose collective 21 bargaining agreement, employment contract, or public employee rights provides a 22 process through which recourse for conduct prohibited by subsection 1 is available 23 must exercise that process to completion before commencing an action under this 24 subsection, and if that process provides for judicial review by statutory appeal, then 25 recourse under this subsection is not available.

26 4. The department of labor and human rights shall receive complaints of violations of this
27 section and may attempt to obtain voluntary compliance with this section through 28 informal advice, negotiation, or conciliation. In order to receive assistance from the 29 department of labor and human rights, a person claiming to be aggrieved by a 30 violation of this section shall file a complaint with the department within three hundred 31 days after the alleged act of wrongdoing. An employee is not prohibited from filing, or

1 required to file, a complaint with the department of labor and human rights under this 2 subsection before proceeding under other provisions of this section.

4 amended and reenacted as follows:

5 34-11.1-04. Violations for ~~misuse reported~~report by employee - Reprisals prohibited -
6 Furnishing false information - Department of labor and human rights.

- 7 1. An employee may, without fear of reprisal, report in writing to the employee's 8 respective agency head, a state's attorney, the attorney general, or an employee 9 organization the existence of:
- 10 a. A job-related violation of local, state, or federal law, rule, regulation, or ordinance.
11 b. The job-related misuse of public resources.
12 c. A reasonable concern about a workplace violation of a government health or 13 safety policy or rule or about an otherwise significant workplace threat to health 14 or safety related to a public health emergency.
- 15 2. For having made a report under subsection 1, no employee will:
- 16 a. Be dismissed from employment.
17 b. Have salary increases or employment-related benefits withheld.
18 c. Be transferred or reassigned.
19 d. Be denied a promotion that the employee otherwise would have received.
20 e. Be demoted.
21 f. Be discriminated against in any term or condition of employment.
- 22 3. An employee who intentionally furnishes false information is subject to disciplinary 23 action, including suspension or dismissal as determined by the employee's appointing 24 authority or designee. An employee claiming reprisal under this section may appeal 25 first to the human resource management services division and then to the district court 26 in the manner prescribed by chapter 28-32, or to other appropriate offices and then to 27 district court if the employee is not under the jurisdiction of the human resource 28 management services division.
- 29 4. The department of labor and human rights shall receive complaints of violations of this 30 section and may attempt to obtain voluntary compliance with this section through 31 informal advice, negotiation, or conciliation. To receive assistance from the department

- 1 of labor and human rights, a person claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this 2 section shall file a complaint with the department within three hundred days after the 3 alleged act of wrongdoing. An employee is not prohibited from filing, or required to file, 4 a complaint with the department of labor and human rights under this subsection
5 before proceeding under other provisions of this section.
- 6 5. An employee of the state may appeal a claim of reprisal under this section in the 7 manner prescribed for a classified employee under chapter 54-44.3. This subsection
8 does not apply to an employee under the jurisdiction of the state board of higher 9 education or the judicial branch of government.
