 - (2) Involves the constitutionality of a statute;

- (3) Concerns the internal operation or management of the judicial branch of government; or
 - (4) Is likely to be or presently is pending before a court or a court already has ruled on the issue.
 - b. If the attorney general declines to issue an opinion for a reason in subdivision a, the attorney general shall inform the individual who requested the opinion in a written response.
- 9. Enforce the proper application of funds appropriated to the public institutions of the state and prosecute breaches of trust in the administration of such funds.
- 10. Prosecute corporations and limited liability companies, when necessary, for failure or refusal to make the reports required by law.
- 11. Keep in proper books a register of all cases prosecuted or defended by the attorney general or the attorney general's assistants, in behalf of this state or its officers, and of all proceedings had in relation thereto, including a record of all actions wherein the state is a party, or is interested, prosecuted by the state's attorneys of the several counties and reported to the attorney general as provided by law, and deliver the same to the attorney general's successor in office.
- 12. Keep in the attorney general's office a book in which the attorney general shall record all the official opinions given by the attorney general during the attorney general's term of office, such book to be delivered by the attorney general to the attorney general's successor in office.
- 13. Pay into the state treasury all moneys received by the attorney general for the use of the state.
- 14. Serve as superintendent of the bureau of criminal investigation and perform all duties incident to the proper and efficient conduct of that office.
- 15. Attend to and perform any other duties which from time to time may be required by law.
- 16. Appoint the state fire marshal and supervise the operation of the state fire marshal department.
- 17. Give written opinions, when requested by the governing body or city attorney of a city in the state of North Dakota.
- 18. Repealed by S.L. 1991, ch. 637, § 9.
- 19. Give written opinions to public entities as defined in subdivision a or b of subsection 13 of section 44-04-17.1, when requested by an interested person under section 44-04-21.1."
