ANNOUNCEMENT

SPEAKER K. KOPPELMAN ANNOUNCED that the Rules of Decorum be printed in the journal.

RULES OF DECORUM

The House of Representatives Chamber is an honored, historic, public place where the people's business is conducted by their elected Representatives. It should always be respected as such and members should conduct themselves in an honorable, respectful manner.

1. No food is permitted on the floor of the House when the House is convened.
2. Flash photography and video recording are not permitted while the House is in session. Members of the media and individuals specifically authorized by the Speaker are the only exceptions.
3. No one is permitted to sleep or rest in a prone position in the chamber, behind the rail, or on the benches which line both sides of the Legislative Hall between the House and Senate Chambers.
4. Every member must vote if they are in the House Chamber during a roll call or verification vote.
5. When a roll call vote is taken, every member not at their seat shall call out their name and vote in a voice loud enough for the Speaker to hear.
6. During debate, members are to be attentive and quiet. Members in the immediate vicinity of a member who is speaking should be aware that they are also on camera and must conduct themselves accordingly. Noise behind the rail is not permitted.
7. Under this Session's rules, in view of the pandemic, guests are not allowed in the chamber, in front of the railings.
8. Visitors in the Chambers are not permitted to speak or lean over the back railing while the House is in session.
9. The Sergeant-at-Arms shall clear the floor of the House Chamber in front of the railing of all persons, except legislators, legislative employees, legislative guests, former members of the Legislative Assembly, and members of the media during the time period commencing one hour before the House convenes on any legislative day until the House recesses for that calendar day.
10. Tour groups or guests are not allowed at the Speaker's rostrum or behind the front desk unless authorized by the Speaker.
11. Legislators and employees shall be suitably attired. Men must wear a sport coat or suit and tie at all times when on the House floor. Women must wear suitable business attire.
12. When a legislator is speaking, the Sergeant-at-Arms will not allow anyone to enter that section.
13. When the Speaker is putting the question, no member shall walk out or across the floor of the House.
14. When a member is speaking, no person shall pass between the person speaking and the Speaker.
15. A member desiring to speak shall turn on their speaker light, and when recognized by the Speaker shall rise and respectfully address the Speaker and the members of the House. Members shall address each other through the Speaker and always in a respectful manner.
16. During floor debate members may not speak in a disparaging or disrespectful manner to or about another Representative, or the name of any individuals, organizations or companies should not be used. The use of props, including charts, graphs of similar items is prohibited.
17. Visitors sitting in the lower tier of seats in the House balcony shall not touch, lean over, place objects on, or put their feet on the brass railings.

18. While the House is convened, no person shall read newspapers or other large publications in a conspicuous manner.

19. All persons shall wear identification badges while in the House Chamber or in the employ of the House.

20. All materials placed on desks must be authorized by a House member or individually addressed and mailed to each member.

21. House Rule 306: No member may speak more than twice on the same subject without consent of the House nor more than once until every member who wishes to speak has spoken. Exceptions to this rule are the person carrying the bill, the committee chairman and floor leaders.

22. Cell phones must be turned off/muted while the House is in session, and texting is prohibited. Taking photos with a cell phone or tablet is prohibited if using a flash or disruptive in any way.

23. Signs, posters, drawing, bumper stickers, or items of a similar personal nature are not permitted in the House Chamber and must not be affixed to the front or back of House desks or to the top lids of the computer laptops. The House Chamber is a public area that is visible to the visiting public, on TV and on internet video.

24. Vote in Senate. It is not appropriate to mention the vote on a bill in the Senate during floor debates.

25. Vote by Members-Conflict of Interest. House Rule 321. Any member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill shall disclose the fact to the House and may not vote thereon without the consent of the House. A "personal or private interest" is an interest that affects the member directly, individually, uniquely, and substantially.

26. Pursuant to Joint Rule 805, and until further notice, face masks or shields must be worn on the House floor when the House is in session and for ½ hour before and after each floor session.
