5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

- 6 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-36-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is 7 amended and reenacted as follows:
- 8 12.1-36-01. Surgical alteration of the genitals of female minor Penalty Exception.
- Except as provided in subsection 2, any person who knowingly separates or surgically alters normal, healthy, functioning genital tissue of a female minor is guilty of a class C felony.
 - 2. A surgical operation is not a violation of this section if a licensed medical practitioner performs the operation to correct an anatomical abnormality or to remove diseased tissue that is an immediate threat to the health of the female minor. In applying this subsection, any belief that the operation is required as a matter of custom, ritual, or standard of practice may not be taken into consideration.
 - Any parent, adult family or household member, guardian, or other custodian of any child who willfully allows a child to be surgically altered under this section is guilty of child abuse under subsection 1 of section 14-09-22.
- 4. A custom, ritual, religious practice, or the consent of the parent or guardian of a minor is not a defense against a violation under this section.
- 5. Notwithstanding the limitations of section 29-04-02, prosecution for a violation of subsection 3 must be commenced within threeten years of the date of the offense or within threeten years after the offense is reported to law enforcement, whichever is later.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 29-04-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

29-04-02. Prosecution for felony other than murder within threeseven years.

Except as otherwise provided by law, a prosecution for any felony other than murder must be commenced within threeseven years after its commission. Prosecution of felony offenses under chapter 12.1-23 must be commenced within the later of threeseven years of commission of the last act that is an element of the offense, threeseven years of discovery of the stolen property, or threeseven years of discovery of the loss of the property or services. Nothing in this section prevents a person prosecuted for murder from being found guilty of any included offense and punished accordingly.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 29-04-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

29-04-03.1. Prosecution for sexual abuse of minors.

- 1. Except as provided in subsection 2, a prosecution for a violation of sections 12.1-20-03 through 12.1-20-08 or of section 12.1-20-11 if the victim was under eighteen years of age at the time the offense was committed must be commenced in the proper court within twenty-one years after the commission of the offense or, if the victim failed to report the offense within this limitation period, within threeten years after the offense was reported to law enforcement authorities.
- 2. If, based upon evidence containing deoxyribonucleic acid or a fingerprint obtained at the time of offense, a suspect is conclusively identified by deoxyribonucleic acid testing after the time period prescribed in subsection 1 has expired, a prosecution may be commenced within threeten years after the suspect is conclusively identified by the deoxyribonucleic acid testing or fingerprint authentication.
