POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. MEYER rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR MEYER

MR. PRESIDENT: I rise today to celebrate an anniversary. On this week, 58 years ago, the United States Supreme Court issued an opinion recognizing the accused's right to counsel in a criminal matter.

When an individual is charged with a crime, the United States Constitution requires the state to provide lawyer to those who would otherwise not be able to afford it. Further, the United State Supreme Court recognized the constitutional right to counsel for juveniles alleged to have committed a delinquent act in 1967.

North Dakota meets these constitutional mandates through the North Dakota Commission of Legal Counsel for Indigents. The Commission is the state agency that provides services to individuals when there is a constitutional, statutory or rule based right to counsel.

Mr. President, please join me in recognizing the dedication and effort of the North Dakota Commission on Legal Counsel's Lawyers, staff and contract attorneys who provide this service in the great state of North Dakota. We say in the pledge of allegiance at the start of every floor session, "Justice for All", the men and women of the Commission help to make this a reality in North Dakota.

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that the remarks of Sen. Meyer be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

pursuant to this section. No more than twenty-five percent of the fund may be utilized for grants in a biennium.
