Connecting North Dakotans to economic assistance is a partnership

The state and Human Service Zones work together to deliver help to low and moderate-income families

Contact Human Service Zone

The local applicant can contact their human service zone directly or they can simply apply online.

Determine eligibility

An eligibility worker will review the information, reach out if needed, and make a determination of eligibility.

Person decides to apply

Making ends meet is getting more difficult every month so the applicant makes the decision to reach out for help.

Gather information

The applicant can enter as much info as they can in the SPACES self-service portal.

Issue benefits

If the applicant is eligible to receive assistance, the state will issue the benefit in the appropriate manner.

140,000 - 150,000 North Dakotans utilize SPACES to access economic assistance in North Dakota each year

Average Monthly Individuals/Benefits (FY20)

119,763 people in 68,287 households have a Medicaid record in SPACES

73,262 people in 34,795 households have a SNAP record in SPACES

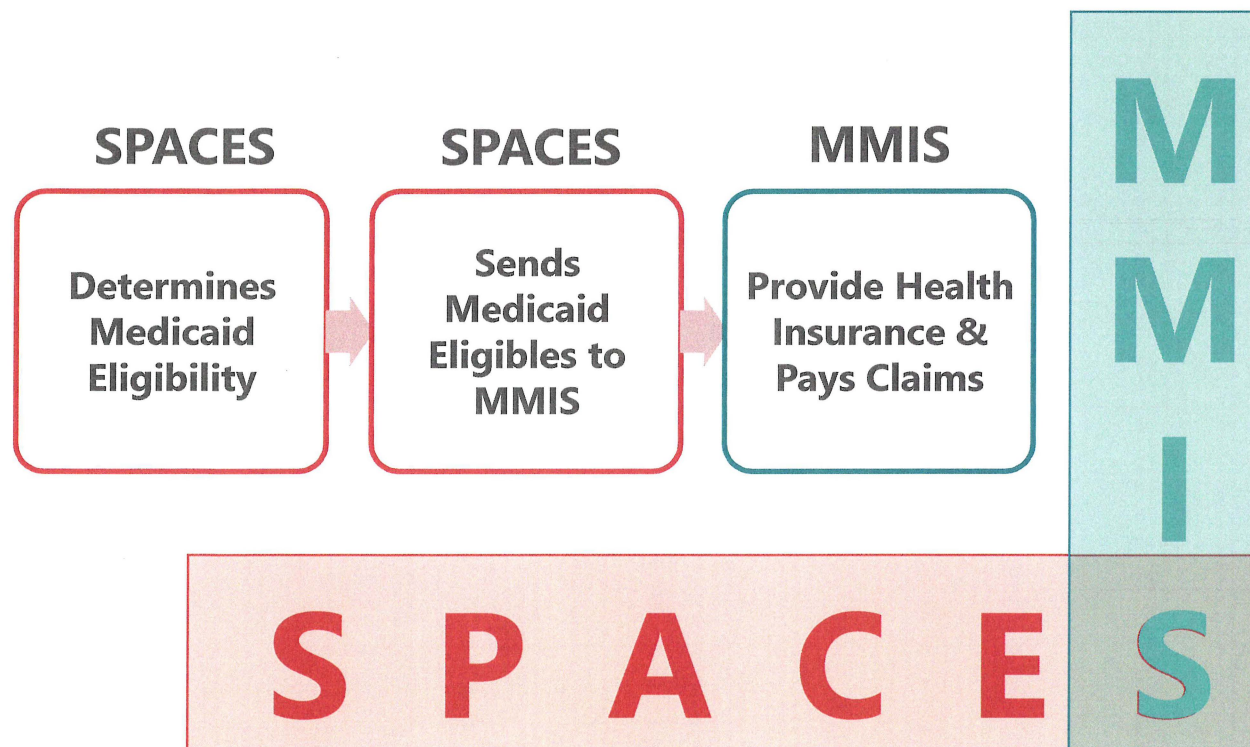

5,124 people in 1,981 households have a TANF record in SPACES

4,946 people in 2,960 households have a CCAP record in SPACES

Two major technology platforms work together to connect low-income North Dakotans to resources

SPACES interfaces with more than 50 systems, including:

- Child Support
- Social Security
- Vital Records
- IRS
- EBT & EPC Systems
- ND PeopleSoft
