

I support HB 1468 to include more transparency in vaccines—details about long-term trials with placebo and actual vaccine tested on humans along with all possible side effects.