

I support HB1468 which deals with providing more information to parents when their kids are getting vaccinated. When my child was vaccinated, the risks of them was greatly underplayed. More information and facts need to be given to parents before vaccination for them to make a more educated risk vs reward choice instead of them just telling the parents they are safe. In the case of my child, they were not safe at all.

Thanks for reading.