

I support HB1396. The freer we are when it comes to the 2nd amendment the better. The manufacturer has no control after a product is sold, so in turn, they should have zero liability. May God guide you and bless you all!