

16 years in power is enough for ANY individual. Power is a drug. It becomes addicting and allows good people to lose perspective of the fact they are elected to preserve the will of the PEOPLE, not themselves.

Service should be just that, not a career. Not another way to enrich yourself through lobbyists, voting correctly to achieve the prime appointment, or to continue to feed off the public teat for eternity.

Do the right thing. Vote yourself out of office.....before we vote you out for all the reasons listed above.
