

I am asking you to support this bill.

Parents should definately be the chief stakeholders of their own children's future and education!