JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Sixty-eighth Legislative Assembly

* * * * *

Bismarck, February 22, 2023

The House convened at 8:00 a.m., with Speaker D. Johnson presiding.

The prayer was offered by Pastor Paul Herr, Century Baptist Church, Bismarck.

The roll was called and all members were present except Representative Hoverson.

A quorum was declared by the Speaker.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. DAKANE rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE DAKANE

MR. SPEAKER: Honorable Colleagues,

I just wanted to say a few words noting and commemorating Black History Month.

Of course we all know about the many great civil rights leaders: Martin Luther King Jr., Malcolm X, and Rosa Parks. Writers and thinkers like Maya Angelou, and Frederick Douglass, who former President Trump noted, “is an example of somebody who’s done an amazing job and is getting recognized more and more.”

I would be remiss if I didn’t mention famous black North Dakotans. A Dakota Datebook from a few years ago shared several:

Era Bell Thompson, who was the editor of Ebony magazine and lived near Driscoll and then Bismarck.

James Williams a black cowboy who, “was such a good roper that he once lassoed a goose right out of midair.”

John Tyler, another black cowboy, who was friends with one of North Dakota’s favorite Presidents, Teddy Roosevelt.

William Montgomery, the owner of a 1,000-acre bonanza farm south of Fargo.

Frank Taylor, a highly respected horse dealer.

We honor these Americans, these North Dakotans during this Black History Month.

I would also ask us to reflect on the underlying reason to specifically have a month for Black History.

This country has been through quite a lot in its relatively short history. The battle for acceptance for everyone in our diverse country is prevalent. We have even seen civil wars as a result.

As we think about our country’s past, of course we must note that we are not alone. Many bad things have happened to many people all across the world and all throughout history, but we can take that history to learn from it.

We are taking on a great historical task. To create a society that respects and treats fairly people from many very different backgrounds. We may not all have a long history of making Uffda.. . all good foods, but while I am up here, can I suggest you try (pick three foods you like Malawah with stew, jabati, or Sambus).

Differences aside, we share a common humanity. We love those who care for us, and those we care for. We all want to contribute to a community, to be part of something bigger than ourselves.

Let's celebrate this month together as a step towards becoming an even stronger country, a country that recognizes the potential of everyone, even the ones who are a little different from us.
Thank you.
