"SECTION 17. LEGISLATIVE MANAGEMENT STUDY - SCHOOL CHOICE MODELS.

1. During the 2023-24 interim, the legislative management shall ~~consider~~ ~~studying~~ school choice models implemented nationally for kindergarten through grade twelve schools, including charter schools, magnet schools, private schools, voucher systems, and home schools. The study must include input from stakeholders, including public and nonpublic teachers and administrators, parents of students, representatives from the department of public instruction, a representative from the governor's office, and representatives from regional education associations. The study also must include the following, supported by quantitative data:
 - a. A review of regulations and methods for accountability by state regulatory agencies for various school choice models;
 - b. A comparison of nontraditional school choice models implemented by rural states;
 - c. An analysis of the impact of enrollment fluctuation, including the impact on state aid;
 - d. A review of the state's student population, enrollment capacity and tuition costs of nonpublic schools, and the capacity of nonpublic schools to provide services to students with special needs; and
 - e. A comparison of achievement data between public schools and nontraditional schools in other states.
2. The legislative management shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the sixty-ninth legislative assembly."
