

HB 1532 gives parents the total right to provide an education for their children. The parent gets the right to choose the school thereby the curriculum their child learns.