

I support HB 1532. I have 2 children who attend Light of Christ Catholic schools. With the higher cost of living, any tuition reimbursement would greatly help for them to continue in the same school program. Some of the reasons we started and would like to continue this education path: smaller classroom size, sense of belonging, religion, structure. One of them has ADHD/ODD and needs a very structured program and his school has helped him succeed.