

I strongly oppose SB 2360.

Not only does it fly in the face of the First Amendment, it takes away my right as a parent to decide what my child reads and puts that choice in the hands of people I don't know and may not share my values. No one is being forced to read books they don't like or approve of – why penalize libraries for making them available to the people who do want to read them?

Tonya Palmer

Grand Forks, ND