

I am fully in support of providing reimbursement for private K-12 education in North Dakota. Private Education has shown the ability to educate students to higher academic performance.