7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

- 8 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 27-20.4-01 of the North Dakota 9 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
- 10 4. "Child" means an individual who is:
  - a. Under the age of eighteen years and is not married; or
- b. Under the age of twenty Eighteen years of age or older with respect to a delinquent act committed while under the age of eighteen years and not married, unless an offense is transferred under section 27-20.4-21.
- 15 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 27-20.4-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
  - 3. If the court cannot find a less restrictive alternative, the The court may commit a child to the division of juvenile services. A risk and needs assessment must be the basis for the determination of commitment to the division of juvenile services. The court only may commit a child to the division for a new delinquent offense. Unless all probation extensions have been exhausted, the child's risk and treatment needs continue to be high and the child is refusing to comply with the terms of probation, the court may not commit a child for a violation of the terms of probation, or may order a child over

1 f. Success or failure of previous attempts to rehabilitate; 2 Whether the child can be rehabilitated before expiration of juvenile court g. 3 jurisdiction; 4 h. Any psychological, probation, or institutional reports; 5 i. The nature and circumstances of the acts for which the transfer is sought; 6 j. The prospect for adequate protection of the public; and 7 Any other relevant factors. k. 8 A child subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, either before or after reaching 9 eighteen years of age, may not be prosecuted for an offense previously committed 10 unless the case has been transferred as provided in this section. 11 Statements made by the child at a hearing under this section are not admissible 5. 12 against the child over objection in the criminal proceedings following the transfer 13 except for impeachment. 14 If the case is not transferred, the judge who conducted the hearing may not over 15 objection of an interested party preside at the hearing on the petition. If the case is 16 transferred to a court of which the judge who conducted the hearing is also a judge, 17 the judge likewise is disqualified over objection from presiding in the prosecution. 18 An individual at least twenty years of age who committed an offense while a child and 19 was not adjudicated for the offense in juvenile court may be prosecuted in district court-20 as an adult, unless the state intentionally delayed the prosecution to avoid juvenile 21 court jurisdiction. The district court has original and exclusive jurisdiction for the 22 prosecution under this subsection. 23 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 27-20.4-23 of the North Dakota Century Code is 24 amended and reenacted as follows: 25 27-20.4-23. Limitations of orders of disposition. 26 An order of disposition may not exceed twelve months from disposition unless 27 extended by the court. The director or designee may request two extensions up to four 28 months each an extension up to one year for the child to complete the treatment goals of the court order and the case plan.

- 1 An order of disposition committing a delinquent child to the division of juvenile services 2 may not exceed twelve months. The court may extend the order for an additional 3 twelve-month period, if: 4 A hearing is held upon motion of the division, or on the court's own motion, prior 5 to the expiration of the order; 6 b. Reasonable notice of the hearing and an opportunity to be heard are given to the 7 child and the parent, guardian, or other custodian; 8 The court finds the extension is necessary for the treatment or rehabilitation of C. 9 the child and has determined that such treatment cannot be provided in their 10 home community; and 11 The extension does not exceed twelve months from the expiration of an order d. 12 limited by subsection 3 or two years from the expiration of any other limited order. 13 3. Except as provided in subsection 2, an order of disposition pursuant to which a child is 14 placed in foster care may not continue for more than twelve months after the child is 15 considered to have entered foster care. A permanency hearing must be conducted 16 before the extension of any court order limited under this subsection. Any other order 17 of disposition may not continue in force for more than twelve months. 18 4. The court may terminate an order of disposition before the expiration of the order. 19 5. Except as provided in subsection 2, the court may terminate an order of disposition or 20 extension before its expiration, on or without an application of a party, if it appears to 21 the court the purposes of the order have been accomplished. If a party may be 22 adversely affected by the order of termination, the order may be made only after 23 reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard have been given to the party. 24 When the child attains the age of twenty years, all orders affecting the child then in-25 force terminate and the child is discharged from further obligation or control. 26 SECTION 6. A new subsection to section 54-23.3-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is 27 created and enacted as follows: 28 To employ personnel and to establish policies and procedures to supervise a child 29 when a court orders supervision and management by the department under
