

My name is Jessica Bailey, and I am a lifelong resident of Grand Forks, ND. I strongly oppose this bill, SB 2123. It is a parent's responsibility to guide their children through their reading choices, and it is no one's right to limit another child's freedom to read.