6 qualifications required to serve as a commission member under this chapter or a vacancy under
7 section 44-02-01 occurs, the commission, by majority vote, shall appoint a qualified cattle
8 industry representative for the remainder of the term. If an individual is appointed by the 9 commission to complete a vacancy, that service is not counted as years of service under 10 section 3 of this Act, unless the duration of that service exceeds one year. An individual
11 appointed under this section has the same rights, duties, and privileges as an elected
12 commission member.

13 SECTION 5. A new section to chapter 4.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
14 and enacted as follows:

15 Geographical districts - Redistricting - Report to legislative assembly.

- 16 1. The state consists of the following districts:
 - 17 a. District one: Barnes, Cass, Cavalier, Eddy, Foster, Grand Forks, Griggs, Nelson, 18 Pembina, Ramsey, Steele, Towner, Traill, and Walsh Counties;
 - 19 b. District two: Dickey, LaMoure, McIntosh, Ransom, Richland, and Sargent
20 Counties;
 - 21 c. District three: Kidder, Logan, and Stutsman Counties;
 - 22 d. District four: Burleigh, Emmons, Sheridan, and Wells Counties;
 - 23 e. District five: Benson, Bottineau, McHenry, Pierce, Renville, and Rolette Counties;
 - 24 f. District six: Burke, Divide, McKenzie, McLean, Mountrail, Ward, and Williams
25 Counties;
 - 26 g. District seven: Billings, Dunn, Golden Valley, Oliver, and Mercer Counties;
 - 27 h. District eight: Adams, Bowman, Hettinger, Slope, and Stark Counties; and
 - 28 i. District nine: Grant, Morton, and Sioux Counties.
- 29 2. The commission shall review the nine district boundaries and tally the number of cattle
30 in each district at least once every seven years to ensure accurate producer
31 representation. If the commission determines the nine districts do not accurately

1 represent cattle industry representatives in the state, the commission may enact a
2 redistricting plan to amend district boundaries, provided each district contains at least
3 three undivided counties. If two-thirds of the elected commission members vote in 4 favor of the proposed redistricting plan, the commission shall adopt the plan. If the 5 commission adopts a redistricting plan, the commission shall report to the next
6 legislative assembly to propose an amendment to subsection 1 in a manner consistent
7 with the results of the redistricting plan. The redistricting plan becomes effective on the 8 date the amended district boundaries under subsection 1 become effective.

9 SECTION 6. A new section to chapter 4.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
10 and enacted as follows:

11 Director of the North Dakota state university extension service - Nomination and 12 election of district commission candidates.

- 13 1. a. The director of the North Dakota state university extension service shall oversee 14 district representative commission member nominations and elections.
- 15 b. Between October first and November fifteenth of each year, the director shall 16 conduct the nominating and election process to elect successors for districts with 17 terms expiring that fiscal year.
- 18 c. The director shall notify all known cattle industry representatives in the respective 19 district and request nominations for district representative commission candidates
20 no fewer than forty-five days before the district representative commission
21 election. The notice must include the date, time, and place of the election and 22 must be published in all official county newspapers within the district or by 23 reliable electronic means.
- 24 d. To be eligible as a candidate in a district commission election, at least five cattle 25 industry representatives who reside in the district shall nominate the candidate in 26 writing. A cattle industry representative may not self-nominate.
- 27 e. Upon receiving the district commission nominations, the director shall certify that 28 nominated candidates meet the requirements of section 4.1-03-02. The director
29 shall prepare the election ballots with the names of the certified nominated district
30 commission candidates. Voting must occur within a period of five business days 31 set by the director. Each ballot also must include a statement indicating:

- 1 (1) The date, time, and location the director will open the ballots and tabulate
2 the results; and
- 3 (2) Any cattle industry representative in the district may be present at the time
4 the ballots are opened and tabulated.
- 5 f. The director and the executive director of the commission shall hold the district
6 commission election by paper ballot. An eligible voter shall go to the North
7 Dakota state university extension service location within the voter's district to cast 8 the ballot.
- 9 g. The director and the executive director of the commission shall canvass the 10 votes. The director shall notify the commission and the governor that the election 11 has taken place, and provide to the commission and the governor the name and 12 address and term of the newly elected district representative commission 13 member.
- 14 2. If the cattle industry representatives in a district fail to elect an individual, as required
15 by this section, the director shall notify the commission and the governor. The 16 governor shall appoint a cattle industry representative who meets the requirements of 17 section 4.1-03-02 to serve as the district commission member for the district. An 18 individual appointed under this subsection has the same rights, duties, and privileges
19 as an elected commission member.
- 20 3. Each eligible voter is entitled to one vote and must vote in the district in which the 21 voter's livestock operation headquarters is located. If an eligible voter has multiple 22 livestock operation headquarters in more than one district, the eligible voter shall cast
23 their vote in the district in which the voter physically resides. Before casting a vote, the 24 voter shall certify on the ballot the voter is an eligible voter as provided under section 25 4.1-03-01.
- 26 4. To verify the eligibility certification made under subsection 3, the commission may 27 request proof of an individual's eligibility, such as an eligible sales receipt.

28 SECTION 7. A new section to chapter 4.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
29 and enacted as follows:

1 Election costs - Responsibility.

2 All costs of holding district commission member nominations and elections under section 6
3 of this Act are the responsibility of the commission.

4 SECTION 8. EFFECTIVE DATE. Section 2 of this Act becomes effective on January 1, 5 2026.
