

HOUSE BILL NO. 1489

Introduced by

Representatives Satrom, Klemin, Ostlie

Senator Conley

1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact chapter 14-07.7 of the North Dakota Century Code,
2 relating to civil protection orders; to amend and reenact sections 11-15-32 and 12-60-23,
3 subsection 2 of section 12.1-17-13, section 14-05-23, subsection 4 of section 14-07.1-01,
4 sections 14-07.1-02.1 and 14-07.1-11, subsection 1 of section 14-07.1-14, section 14-07.1-19,
5 subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 14-07.6-01, subdivision b of subsection 1 of section
6 15.1-09-33.4, sections 16.1-02-07 and 29-01-15, subdivision g of subsection 1 of section
7 29-06-15, and subdivision a of subsection 2 of section 47-16-17.1 of the North Dakota Century
8 Code, relating to restraining orders and protection orders; to repeal sections 12.1-31-01.2, 9 12.1-31.2-01, 14-07.1-02, 14-07.1-03, 14-07.1-03.1, 14-07.1-04, 14-07.1-05, 14-07.1-05.1, 10 14-07.1-06, 14-07.1-07, and 14-07.1-08 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to sexual 11 assault restraining orders and domestic violence protection orders; to provide a penalty; and to 12 provide an effective date.

13 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

14 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 11-15-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is
15 amended and reenacted as follows:

16 11-15-32. Issuance of civil protection and ~~restraining~~ orders - Duty of sheriff.

17 The sheriff shall notify the bureau of criminal investigation of any ~~disorderly conduct~~ 18 ~~restraining~~civil protection order issued against an individual in the sheriff's county pursuant to 19 ~~section 12.1-31.2-01~~under chapter 14-07.7 within twenty-four hours of issuance. The notice
20 must include any information required by the bureau of criminal investigation. The law 21 enforcement agency shall enter the order into any information system available in the state that 22 is used to list outstanding warrants for a ~~period~~ of one year or until the date of expiration or 23 termination as specified in the order. The order is enforceable in any jurisdiction in this state.

1 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 12-60-23 of the North Dakota Century Code is
2 amended and reenacted as follows:

3 12-60-23. Bureau to maintain registry of protection orders, orders prohibiting contact,
4 and restraining orders.

5 The bureau shall maintain a registry of all orders of which it receives notice under sections
6 11-15-32; and 12.1-31.2-02; ~~14-07.1-02~~, and ~~14-07.1-03~~chapter 14-07.7.

7 SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 12.1-17-13 of the North Dakota
8 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

9 2. The sentence for an offense under section 12.1-17-01, 12.1-17-01.1, 12.1-17-01.2, 10 12.1-17-02, 12.1-17-03, 12.1-17-04, 12.1-17-05, 12.1-17-07, 12.1-17-07.1, 12.1-18-02,
11 12.1-18-03, 12.1-21-05, 12.1-21-06.1, ~~12.1-31.2-01~~, 12.1-31.2-02, or 12 ~~14-07.1-06~~14-07.7-07 against an intimate partner, must include an order to complete a 13 domestic violence offender assessment and intervention program as determined by 14 the court. A court may not order the offender to attend anger management classes or 15 individual counseling unless a domestic violence offender intervention program is not 16 reasonably available to the defendant and the court makes findings for the record
17 explaining why an order to complete a domestic violence offender intervention
18 program would be inappropriate.

19 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 14-05-23 of the North Dakota Century Code is
20 amended and reenacted as follows:

21 14-05-23. Temporary support, attorney's fees, and parental rights and 22 responsibilities.

23 During any time in which an action for separation or divorce is pending, the court, upon 24 application of a party, may issue an order requiring a party to pay such support as may be 25 necessary for the support of a party and minor children of the parties and for the payment of 26 attorney's fees. The court in the order may make an order concerning parental rights and 27 responsibilities concerning the children of the parties. The order may be issued and served in 28 accordance with the North Dakota Rules of Court. The court may include in the order a 29 provision for domestic violence protection provided the party has submitted a verified 30 ~~application~~petition for the order which is sufficient to meet the criteria defined in subsection 2 of 31 section 14-07.1-01. A violation of the protection provision of the order is subject to the penalties

1 established in section ~~14-07.1-06~~14-07.7-17 and the arrest procedures authorized in section 2 ~~14-07.1-11~~14-07.7-18.

3 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 14-07.1-01 of the North Dakota
4 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

5 4. "Family or household member" means a spouse, family member, former spouse,
6 parent, child, ~~persons~~individuals related by blood or marriage, ~~persons~~individuals who 7 are in a dating relationship, ~~persons~~individuals who are presently residing together or 8 who have resided together in the past, ~~persons~~and individuals who have a child in 9 common regardless of whether they are or have been married or have lived together
10 at any time, ~~and, for the purpose of the issuance of a domestic violence protection~~ 11 ~~order, any other person with a sufficient relationship to the abusing person as~~
12 ~~determined by the court under section 14-07.1-02.~~

13 SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 14-07.1-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
14 amended and reenacted as follows:

15 14-07.1-02.1. Allegation of domestic violence - Effect.

16 If the court finds that a party's allegation of domestic violence in a ~~domestic violence~~civil 17 protection order proceeding, divorce proceeding, child custodyparenting responsibility 18 proceeding, child visitationparenting time proceeding, separation proceeding, or termination of 19 parental rights proceeding is false and not made in good faith, the court shall order the party 20 making the false allegation to pay court costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the 21 other party in responding to the allegation.

22 SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 14-07.1-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is
23 amended and reenacted as follows:

24 14-07.1-11. Arrest without warrant.

25 1. ~~A law enforcement officer shall arrest a person without a warrant if the person has~~
26 ~~committed the offense of violating a protection order under section 14-07.1-06,~~
27 ~~whether or not the violation was committed in the presence of the officer.~~
28 2. A law enforcement officer may arrest a ~~person~~an individual without a warrant if the 29 arrest is made within twelve hours from the time the officer determines there is 30 probable cause to arrest for an assault of a family or household member as defined in 31 section 14-07.1-01, whether or not the assault took place in the presence of the officer.

1 After twelve hours has elapsed, the officer ~~must~~shall secure an arrest warrant before
2 making an arrest. A law enforcement officer may not arrest a ~~person~~an individual
3 pursuant to this subsection without first observing that there has been recent physical 4 injury to, or impairment of physical condition of, the alleged victim. This subsection 5 does not apply to an arrest made by a law enforcement officer in accordance with 6 section 14-07.7-18.

7 ~~3-2.~~ A law enforcement officer may not be held criminally or civilly liable for making an 8 arrest ~~pursuant to~~under this section if the officer acts in good faith on probable cause
9 and without malice.

10 SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 14-07.1-14 of the North Dakota
11 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

12 1. Every law enforcement agency shall develop and implement, with assistance from the 13 criminal justice training and statistics division, specific operational guidelines for arrest
14 policies and procedures in crimes involving domestic violence. The guidelines must 15 include procedures for the conduct of criminal investigations, procedures for arrests 16 and victim assistance by law enforcement officers, procedures concerning the 17 provision of services to victims, and any additional procedures as may be necessary to 18 carry out sections ~~14-07.1-02~~14-07.1-08.1 through 14-07.1-14 and chapter 14-07.7.

19 SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Section 14-07.1-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is
20 amended and reenacted as follows:

21 14-07.1-19. Release conditions.

22 If an individual charged with or arrested for a crime involving domestic violence, including a 23 violation of a ~~domestic violence~~civil protection order under ~~section 14-07.1-03~~chapter 14-07.7 or 24 an order prohibiting contact under section ~~14-07.1-13~~12.1-31.2-02, is released from custody, a
25 district or municipal court may require that electronic home detention or global positioning
26 system monitoring be used for the individual as a condition of release.

27 SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 14-07.6-01 of the 28 North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

29 a. The parties have or had an intimate partner relationship or any other 30 ~~person~~individual with a sufficient relationship to the abusing ~~person~~individual as 31 determined by the court under section ~~14-07.1-02~~14-07.7-07;

1 SECTION 11. Chapter 14-07.7 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted
2 as follows:

3 14-07.7-01. Definitions.

4 For purposes of this chapter:

5 1. a. "Civil protection order" means a protection order that prohibits the restrained
6 individual from:

7 (1) Contacting, harassing, injuring, intimidating, molesting, threatening,

8 touching, stalking, sexually assaulting, or abusing any protected individual;

9 (2) Entering or remaining on premises;

10 (3) Coming within a specified distance of the protected individual or premises;

11 or

12 (4) Any other action necessary to protect the protected individual from imminent
13 danger to life or health.

14 b. A civil protection order may be a:

15 (1) Disorderly conduct restraining order;

16 (2) Domestic violence protection order; or

17 (3) Sexual assault restraining order.

18 2. "Contact" means any interaction or communication with another individual, directly or 19 indirectly, including electronic, digital, and social media communication.

20 3. "Disorderly conduct" means intrusive or unwanted acts, words, or gestures intended to 21 adversely affect the safety, security, or privacy of another individual. Disorderly 22 conduct includes human trafficking and attempted human trafficking as defined in 23 title 12.1. Disorderly conduct does not include constitutionally protected activity.

24 4. "Domestic violence" includes physical harm, bodily injury, sexual activity compelled by 25 physical force, assault, or the infliction of fear of imminent physical harm, bodily injury,
26 sexual activity compelled by physical force, or assault, not committed in self-defense,
27 on the complaining family or household member.

28 5. "Family or household member" means a spouse, family member, former spouse,
29 parent, child, individual related by blood or marriage, individuals in a dating 30 relationship, individuals residing together or who have resided together in the past, 31 individuals with a child in common regardless of relationship status and, for the

1 purpose of the issuance of a civil protection order, any other individual with a sufficient
2 relationship to the abusing individual as determined by the court under section 3 14-07.7-07.

4 6. "Protected individual" means the individual identified in a civil protection order as the 5 individual for whose benefit the civil protection order was issued.

6 7. "Sexual assault" means any nonconsensual offense in chapter 12.1-20 for which 7 sexual act or sexual conduct, as defined in section 12.1-20-02, is an element.

8 8. "Stalking" has the meaning as in section 12.1-17-07.1. Domestic violence and 9 disorderly conduct include stalking.

10 14-07.7-02. Petition for civil protection order.

11 1. An individual who is or has been a victim of disorderly conduct, domestic violence, or 12 sexual assault may file a petition for a civil protection order against:

13 a. A family or household member who commits an act of domestic violence; or 14 b. An individual who has committed disorderly conduct or sexual assault.

15 2. The petition must identify which type of civil protection order is sought.

16 3. If the individual to be protected is a minor, the parent or guardian shall file a petition on 17 behalf of the minor. The parent or guardian of the minor is the petitioner and the minor 18 is the protected individual.

19 4. If the respondent is a minor, the parent or guardian must be notified of the petition and 20 any subsequent order.

21 5. The petition must allege facts sufficient to show:

22 a. The name of the alleged victim;

23 b. The name of the respondent engaging in the alleged conduct; and 24 c. The respondent engaged in the alleged conduct.

25 6. The petition must contain:

26 a. A declaration stating the specific facts and circumstances supporting the relief 27 sought; and

28 b. A statement listing each civil or criminal action involving both parties.

29 7. A petition may be against only one respondent. Dual protection orders in a single 30 action are prohibited.

1 8. A petition may be brought under this chapter without regard to the commencement of 2 an action for legal separation, annulment, divorce, or parenting rights and
3 responsibilities.

4 9. A filing fee may not be charged for a civil protection order petition.

5 14-07.7-03. Civil protection order - General provisions.

6 1. A civil protection order must contain a conspicuous notice to the respondent providing:

7 a. The specific conduct that constitutes a violation;

8 b. The penalties for violation of the order; and

9 c. A peace officer may arrest the respondent without a warrant and take the 10 respondent into custody if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the 11 respondent violated the order.

12 2. The court may amend an order following a motion filed by either party.

13 3. An order entered under this chapter expires on the expiration date provided in the 14 order at eleven fifty-nine p.m. central standard time.

15 4. No order under this chapter affects title to real property.

16 14-07.7-04. Temporary disorderly conduct restraining order.

17 1. If the petition for relief alleges reasonable grounds that a respondent engaged in 18 disorderly conduct, the court, pending a full hearing, may grant a temporary disorderly 19 conduct restraining order ordering the respondent to cease the disorderly conduct or 20 contact with the protected individual.

21 2. A temporary restraining order may be entered:

22 a. Against the respondent named in the petition; and 23 b. Without notice to the respondent.

24 3. Unless otherwise terminated by the court, the temporary restraining order is in effect
25 until an order issued under section 14-07.7-05 is served.

26 14-07.7-05. Disorderly conduct restraining order.

27 1. The court may grant a disorderly conduct restraining order ordering the respondent to 28 cease the disorderly conduct or contact with the protected individual if:

29 a. The petitioner files a petition under section 14-07.7-02;

- 1 b. The sheriff serves the respondent with a copy of the temporary restraining order
2 issued under section 14-07.7-04 and with notice of the time and place of the 3 hearing;
4 c. The court sets a hearing for no later than fourteen days after issuance of the 5 temporary restraining order, or a later date if good cause is shown; and 6 d. After the hearing, the court finds reasonable grounds exist to believe the 7 respondent engaged in disorderly conduct.

8 2. If a respondent claims to have engaged in constitutionally protected activity, the court 9 shall determine the validity of the claim as a matter of law and, if found valid, shall 10 exclude evidence of the activity.

11 3. Relief granted by the restraining order may not exceed two years.

12 14-07.7-06. Temporary domestic violence protection order.

13 1. If the petition for relief alleges reasonable grounds to believe a respondent engaged in 14 domestic violence, the court, pending a full hearing, may grant a temporary domestic 15 violence protection order that may include provisions:

- 16 a. Restraining the respondent from having contact with or committing acts of 17 domestic violence on another individual.
18 b. Excluding the respondent from the residence of another individual or from a place
19 necessary to ensure the safety of the protected individual.
20 c. Awarding temporary primary residential responsibility or establishing temporary
21 parenting time with regard to minor children.
22 d. Requiring the respondent to surrender for safekeeping any firearm or other 23 specified dangerous weapon, as defined in section 12.1-01-04, which is in the 24 respondent's possession, custody, or control, if the court has probable cause to
25 believe the respondent is likely to use, display, or threaten to use the firearm or 26 other dangerous weapon in further acts of violence.

27 2. If ordered to surrender a firearm or other dangerous weapon, the respondent shall 28 surrender the firearm or dangerous weapon within twenty-four hours of being served 29 to:

- 30 a. The sheriff, or the sheriff's designee, of the county in which the respondent
31 resides; or

- 1 b. The chief of police, or the chief's designee, of the city in which the respondent 2 resides.
- 3 3. If the respondent is ordered to surrender a firearm or other dangerous weapon and
4 fails to do so within twenty-four hours, a law enforcement officer may arrest the
5 respondent in accordance with section 14-07.7-18 and take possession of the firearm
6 or dangerous weapon.
- 7 4. A temporary domestic violence protection order may be entered only against the 8 respondent named in the petition.
- 9 5. The court may issue a temporary domestic violence protection order without giving 10 notice to the respondent.
- 11 6. Unless otherwise terminated by the court, the temporary domestic violence protection 12 order is in effect until a protection order issued under section 14-07.7-07 is served.

13 14-07.7-07. Domestic violence protection order.

- 14 1. The court may enter a domestic violence protection order if:
- 15 a. The petitioner files a petition under section 14-07.7-02;
- 16 b. The sheriff serves the respondent with a copy of the temporary domestic violence
17 protection order issued under subsection 1 and with notice of the time and place
18 of the hearing;
- 19 c. The court sets a hearing for no later than fourteen days after issuance of the 20 temporary domestic violence protection order or at a later date if good cause is 21 shown; and
- 22 d. The court finds after the hearing that:
- 23 (1) The relationship between the respondent and protected individual is 24 sufficient to warrant protection; and
- 25 (2) There was a showing of actual or imminent domestic violence.
- 26 2. The relief provided in the domestic violence protection order may include:
- 27 a. Restraining any party from threatening, molesting, injuring, harassing, or having 28 contact with any other individual.
- 29 b. Excluding the respondent from the residence of another individual or from a place
30 necessary to ensure the safety of the protected individual.

- 1 c. Awarding temporary primary residential responsibility or establishing temporary
2 parenting time with regard to minor children.
- 3 d. Recommending or requiring that the respondent complete a domestic violence 4 offender assessment and attend a domestic violence intervention program as 5 determined appropriate by the court. The court may request a report from the 6 designated program within a time period established by the court. The costs of 7 the court-ordered assessment and subsequent reports must be borne by the 8 respondent or, if indigent, by the respondent's county of residence.
- 9 e. Requiring a party to pay any support necessary for the support of a party and any 10 minor children of the parties and reasonable attorney's fees and costs.
- 11 f. Awarding temporary use of personal property, including motor vehicles, to either 12 party.
- 13 g. Requiring the respondent to surrender for safekeeping any firearm or other 14 specified dangerous weapon, as defined in section 12.1-01-04, in the 15 respondent's possession, custody, or control, if the court has probable cause to
16 believe the respondent is likely to use, display, or threaten to use the firearm or 17 other dangerous weapon in further acts of violence. If ordered to surrender a 18 firearm or other dangerous weapon, the respondent shall surrender the firearm or 19 dangerous weapon within twenty-four hours of being served to:
- 20 (1) The sheriff, or the sheriff's designee, of the county in which the respondent
21 resides; or
- 22 (2) The chief of police, or the chief's designee, of the city in which the 23 respondent resides.
- 24 3. If the respondent is ordered to surrender a firearm or other dangerous weapon and
25 fails to do so within twenty-four hours, a law enforcement officer may arrest the
26 respondent in accordance with section 14-07.7-18 and take possession of the firearm
27 or dangerous weapon.

28 14-07.7-08. Temporary sexual assault restraining order.

- 29 1. If the petition for relief alleges reasonable grounds to believe an individual has 30 committed sexual assault, the court, pending a full hearing, may grant a temporary 31 sexual assault restraining order.

- 1 2. A temporary restraining order may be entered only against the individual named in the 2 petition. The order must include provisions prohibiting the individual from:
3 a. Harassing, stalking, or threatening the protected individual;
4 b. Appearing at the residence, school, and place of employment of the protected
5 individual; and
6 c. Contacting the protected individual.

7 14-07.7-09. Sexual assault restraining order.

- 8 1. The court may grant a sexual assault restraining order if:
9 a. The petitioner files a petition under section 14-07.7-02;
10 b. The sheriff serves the respondent with a copy of the temporary sexual assault 11 restraining order issued under section 14-07.7-08 and with notice of the time and 12 place of the hearing;
13 c. The court sets a hearing for no later than fourteen days after issuance of the 14 temporary sexual assault restraining order or a later date if good cause is shown;
15 and
16 d. The court finds after the hearing there are reasonable grounds to believe the 17 respondent committed sexual assault.
18 2. The order must include provisions prohibiting the respondent from:
19 a. Harassing, stalking, or threatening the protected individual;
20 b. Appearing at the residence, school, and place of employment of the protected
21 individual; and
22 c. Contacting the protected individual.
23 3. The relief granted by the sexual assault restraining order may not exceed two years.

24 14-07.7-10. Assistance of state's attorney or domestic violence sexual assault
25 advocate.

- 26 1. Notwithstanding subsection 5 of section 11-16-05, a state's attorney may advise and
27 assist an individual in preparation of documents necessary to secure a civil protection
28 order under this section.
29 2. Notwithstanding section 27-11-01, a domestic violence sexual assault advocate may
30 assist an individual in preparation of documents necessary to secure a civil protection
31 order under this chapter and may sit with the petitioner during court proceedings.

1 14-07.7-11. Notification of stalking law.

2 When an order is issued under this chapter, the order must include or have attached to it a
3 copy of section 12.1-17-07.

4 14-07.7-12. Service.

5 1. When a protection order is issued, extended, modified, or terminated under this 6 chapter, the court shall transmit a copy of the order to the sheriff of the county in which 7 the respondent resides for service on the respondent.

8 2. If the respondent cannot be served, the order may be served on the respondent by 9 publication under rule 4 of the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure.

10 3. Service must be made on the respondent at least five days before the hearing. If 11 service cannot be made or if additional time is required to complete service by 12 publication, the court may set a new date for the hearing.

13 4. No service fee may be charged to the petitioner.

14 14-07.7-13. Right to apply for relief.

15 An individual's right to apply for relief under this chapter is not affected if the individual
16 leaves the residence or dwelling to avoid domestic violence. The court may not require security 17 or bond from any party unless the court deems it necessary in exceptional cases.

18 14-07.7-14. Appointment of guardian ad litem of minor.

19 1. The court, upon the request of either party or upon its own motion, may appoint a 20 guardian ad litem in an action for a civil protection order to represent a minor
21 concerning primary residential responsibility, support, or parenting time if either party
22 or the court has reason for special concern for the immediate future of the minor.

23 2. A guardian ad litem may be appointed at the time of a temporary civil protection order
24 or any time before the full hearing.

25 3. The role of the guardian ad litem consists of investigation and making a 26 recommendation and report to the court. At no time may the involvement of the 27 guardian ad litem alter the requirements set forth in section 14-07.7-02.

28 4. Appointment of the guardian ad litem expires immediately after the full hearing unless 29 the court retains the right, upon specific finding of need, to continue the appointment
30 of a guardian ad litem to represent a minor in matters concerning parenting time.

1 5. The guardian ad litem shall have access to records before the court, except as 2 otherwise provided by law.

3 6. The court may direct either or both parties to pay the guardian ad litem fees
4 established by the court. If neither party is able to pay the fees, the court, after notice
5 to the state's attorney of the county of venue, may direct the fees to be paid, in whole
6 or in part, by the county of venue. The court may direct either or both parties to 7 reimburse the county, in whole or in part, for the payment.

8 14-07.7-15. Nonexclusive remedy.

9 Any proceeding under this chapter may be addition to other civil or criminal remedies.

10 14-07.7-16. Transmittal to bureau of criminal investigation.

11 1. When a protection order is issued, extended, modified, or terminated under this 12 chapter, the court shall transmit the order electronically to the bureau of criminal 13 investigation.

14 2. The bureau shall enter the order electronically in the national crime information center
15 database provided by the federal bureau of investigation, or its successor agency.

16 3. The sheriff of the county in which the order was issued shall maintain and respond to 17 inquiries regarding a record in the national crime information center database provided 18 by the federal bureau of investigation in accordance with bureau and federal 19 requirements.

20 4. When a protection order is issued, the clerk of court shall forward a copy of the order 21 to the local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the residence of the 22 protected party by the close of business on the day the protection order is issued.

23 5. If the bureau, after consultation with the state court administrator, determines and 24 implements an electronic method to notify the sheriff of the county that issued the 25 order, the clerk of court's requirement to forward the order to a law enforcement
26 agency will be satisfied.

27 14-07.7-17. Penalty for violation of a civil protection order.

28 When a civil protection order is granted under this chapter and the respondent or individual
29 to be restrained is served a copy of the order, violation of any order is a class A misdemeanor. A 30 violation of a civil protection order also constitutes contempt of court.

1 14-07.7-18. Arrest without warrant.

2 1. A law enforcement officer shall arrest an individual without a warrant if the individual
3 has committed the offense of violating a protection order under subsection 1 of section 4 14-07.7-03, regardless of whether the violation was committed in the presence of the 5 officer.

6 2. A law enforcement officer may not be held criminally or civilly liable for making an 7 arrest under this section if the officer acts in good faith on probable cause without 8 malice.

9 14-07.7-19. Assistance of law enforcement.

10 When an order is issued upon request of the petitioner, the court shall order the sheriff or 11 other appropriate law enforcement officer to accompany the petitioner and assist in placing the 12 petitioner in possession of the dwelling or residence, or otherwise assist in execution of the 13 protection order, which may include referral to a domestic violence shelter care facility.
