POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. HEILMAN rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE HEILMAN

MR. SPEAKER: Today is a solemn day for the Catholics of North Dakota. We have just begun the Easter season, rejoicing in the resurrection of Jesus Christ after a long period of fasting and preparation during Lent. Yet, today our joy is overshadowed by mourning the passing of Pope Francis, the leader of the Church and a shining example to all Christians—especially to those of us who bear the great responsibility of leadership.

Pope Francis embodied a profound union of truth and charity, of justice and mercy. He stood firmly on the great moral questions of our time, following the example of Our Lord Jesus Christ, who both forgave sinners and instructed them to "go and sin no more."

With unwavering clarity, Pope Francis stood for Catholic values on the issues of gender ideology, abortion, surrogacy, IVF, euthanasia, and numerous other practices. Yet he addressed these matters with a spirit of tenderness and compassion, in a true pastoral fashion, demonstrating that the Church's teachings arise not from hatred or bigotry, but from a profound commitment to the dignity of every human being. Pope Francis loved humanity deeply, and precisely because of this love, he courageously spoke against those acts that diminish our dignity and undermine true freedom.

Pope Francis's deep love for his flock was evident even in his final moments. Defying medical advice, he chose to publicly appear and celebrate Easter yesterday, fully aware that this decision could hasten his death due to his fragile health. He recognized that a leader's purpose is found not in serving oneself, but in serving others.

Let us strive to imitate his remarkable example—speaking truth with love and placing the needs of others above our own. I conclude with a powerful message from Pope Francis's final address to the world: "Christ is risen! These words capture the entire meaning of our existence, for we were not made for death but for life.”
