REP. B. ANDERSON MOVED that the report be adopted, which motion prevailed on a voice vote.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. VANWINKLE rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE VANWINKLE

MR. SPEAKER: Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly, earlier this week in my passionate opposition to HCR 3034 I made an inappropriate, offensive reference regarding the middle finger in opposition to 3034 which was used to depict the citizens opposition regarding this resolution so I would like to offer a sincere apology for using that terminology and not picking a better frame of terminology. So, with that Mr. Speaker, I apologize for breaking the rules of decorum and opposing that bill and apologize to Rep. Kasper as well.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. VANWINKLE rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE VANWINKLE

MR. SPEAKER: Mr. Speaker and members of the assembly, I want to take this personal privilege to recognize that this past Monday was a big day for some of our North Dakota students who have taken up competitive spelling as an extracurricular activity. 100 star spellers came together from among 50 of our 53 counties for the state spelling competition. These students were put through various written, oral, and multiple choice tests, to see who would advance to this year's 100th Scripps National Spelling Bee.

Yesterday, I opened the paper, and was excited to see I recognized the young man named as North Dakota's state spelling champion. His name is Chilaka Ugobi. He and his father were together in the paper beaming with joy because of Chilaka's accomplishment. I am here to share with them in their joy, but I have also had the honor of helping this lovely family purchase their home in Minot, and I also proudly acknowledge his attendance at Our Redeemer's Christian School in Minot, where he is in 7th grade with one of my four children. I love this family dearly.

This is a big win for Chilaka. He has earned an all expense paid trip to the Scripps National Competition in Washington D.C, and was awarded a generous $500 spending award. Last year Chilaka took 4th place in the spelling event. He didn't advance to Nationals as only the first place winner advances, and this year that has become a reality, and he received a much bigger trophy along with the opportunity for national recognition coming up May 25th!

I decided to call the Ugobi family last night, because I wanted the chance to personally hear from, and congratulate, Chilaka himself. He said his win has made him feel very joyful. He explained all about how the competition works and all the various tests needed to advance, but the great thing I admire about this young man is he gives God the glory for his skills and ability. His mother and father also expressed great gratitude to God for their children's accomplishments. Chilaka is the third of their four children involved in spelling competitions.

Chilaka has put a lot of labor into his spelling. He generally spends about two hours a day practicing the pronunciation of words and spelling. His parents explained to me that one of the secrets to his success came from his biggest brother Chibu. Chibu also competed in spelling competitions until the 8th grade limit. Chibu would write the letters on the palm of his hands as he spelled and Chilaka decided to adopt that skill, and, the results are self-evident! This invisible writing technique, along with countless hours of practice, has made him a champion! He says this technique kept him from losing place in his mind, and prevented him from backtracking or making mistakes with the letters.

Mr. speaker and members of the assembly, Chilaka Ugobi is on his way to the Scripps 100th National Championship in Washington D.C.! Let's give Chilaka a round of applause for his great accomplishment, and let's cheer him on and believe for a final victory!

Thank you Mr. Speaker
