

The information technology department, in consultation with the commerce department and test site may implement an enterprise uncrewed aerial vehicle data management solution. An enterprise uncrewed aerial vehicle data management solution implemented under this section must ensure all data collected, transmitted, stored, and consumed by an uncrewed aerial vehicle remain under the control of the state."