

Sir or Madam,

I write in support of protections for the Teddy Roosevelt National Park Horses. I see them as national treasures and believe that their presence in the park is a draw for tourists of all kinds.

Please find a way to not only help these wonderful iconic animals but help the park thrive as well.

Best regards,

Linda Brunner

Stockton, MO.