

ATTORNEYS.

CHAPTER XII.

AN ACT REGULATING THE ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THIS TERRITORY.

Section 1. No person to be admitted to supreme court unless he has been previously admitted in some district court.—
Proviso.

2. Acts repealed.

3. When to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota:

No person to be admitted to supreme court unless he has been previously admitted in some district court.
Proviso.

Section 1. No person shall be admitted or licensed to practice in the supreme court of this Territory, unless such person shall have been first admitted or licensed to practice in some one of the district courts of this Territory; Provided, That any person may be admitted to practice in said supreme court on motion and production of a certificate bearing the seal of the supreme court of any other Territory or State, and certifying that such person was duly admitted to practice in such supreme court of said Territory or State.

Act repealed.

Sec. 2. All acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

When to take effect

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval by the Governor.

Approved, January 7th, 1867.
