CHAPTER 82.

[S. B. No. 135.]

CARLISLE TABLES OF MORTALITY.

AN ACT Declaring the Carlisle Tables of Mortality to be Competent Evidence in Certain Cases.

Be it Enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota:

§ 1. COMPETENT EVIDENCE.] That in all cases in which the probable duration of the natural life of any person from and after a particular age, is material, the statistical tables known as the Carlisle Tables of Mortality, are competent evidence of such probable duration or expectation of life.

Approved, March 14, 1895.

NOXIOUS WEEDS.

CHAPTER 83.

[S. B. No. 20.]

AMENDING LAWS OF 1891.

AN ACT to Amend Section 3, of Chapter 91, of the Session Laws of 1891, Being An Act for the Destruction of Noxious Weeds, Providing Penalties for the Violation of the Same, and for the Repeal of An Act Entitled "An Act to Prevent the Spread of Noxious Weeds in the Territory of Dakota, General Laws of 1885, Supplement Dakota Territory, and An Act Entitled, An Act to Amend Section 1, General Laws 1885, Supplement Relating to Noxious Weeds, Chapter 102, Session Laws of 1890."

Be it Enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota:

§ 1. AMENDMENT.] That Section 3, of Chapter 91, of the Session Laws of 1891, be so amended as to read as follows: Whenever any individual, firm, or corporation owning or occupying any lands within this State, shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this act for more than ten days after the time prescribed by said board of county commissioners, then it shall be the duty of the overseer or road supervisors, as the case may be, to proceed forthwith to destroy the same in the manner provided for said destruction by the board of county commissioners; it shall also be the duty of such overseers or road supervisors to destroy all such noxious weeds that may grow on the highways and railroad right-of-ways and school sections and timber culture claims of his road district, and for so doing such overseers or road supervisors shall have such compensation, payable out of the township treasury or county treasury, as the township board of supervisors or board of county commissioners, upon presentation of his account thereof, verified by oath and specifying by separate items the charges on each piece of land shall deem reasonable, and the respective accounts, so far as right shall be allowed, and paid by the said township board or or board of county commissioners, and upon this being so allowed the said board of supervisors or board of county commissioners shall take proper proceedings in the district court of the county in which said land is. To obtain a judgment against each of said tracts of land and the owner or owners thereof for the amount expended on said lands under this act for the destruction of noxious weeds thereon, to pay the expenses of said destruction and all costs that have since accrued under this act and in obtaining judgment therefore, which judgment shall be declared a first lien on said land to be enforced either by judgment sale or as accrued taxes on the lands are collected, at the option of the court.

§ 2. REPEAL.] All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

§ 3. TAKE EFFECT.] Inasmuch as this law needs to go into effect before July 1, 1895, Therefore, this act shall take effect and be in force on and after its passage and approval.

Approved, March 12, 1895.
