ADMISSION TO THE BAR.

AN ACT To Amend and Re-enact Section 498 of the Revised Codes of North Dakota for the year 1905, Relating To Admission to the Bar.

Be It Enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota:

§ 1. AMENDMENT.] Section 498 of the Revised Codes of 1905, relating to admission to the bar, is amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

§ 498. ADMISSION ON CERTIFICATE, HOW.] Any person becoming a resident of this state, after having been admitted to the bar in any of the states of the United States, in which he has previously resided, may, at the discretion of the court, be admitted to practice in this state without examination or proof of period of study as hereinbefore provided, on proof of the other qualifications by this article required and on satisfactory proof that he has practiced law regularly for not less than three years in the state from which he comes after having been admitted to the bar according to the laws of such state. Provided, however, that time spent while acting as official stenographer in any of the district courts of this state may be substituted in lieu of the period of regular practice of law in the state from which he comes, referred to in this section, after having been admitted to the bar according to the laws of such state.

Approved March 3, 1911.
