COUNTY OFFICERS (Submitted by Legislature)

§ 173. At the first general election held after the adoption of this amendment, and every two years thereafter, there shall be elected in each organized county in the state, a register of deeds, county auditor, treasurer, sheriff, state's attorney, county judge and a clerk of the district court, who shall be electors in the county in which they are elected and who shall hold their office until their successors are elected and qualified; provided in counties having fifteen thousand population, or less, the county judge shall also be the clerk of the district court. Provided further that counties having a population of 6,000 or less, the register of deeds shall also be clerk of the district court and county judge. The legislative assembly shall provide by law for such other county, township and district officers as may be deemed necessary, and shall prescribe the duties and compensation of all county, township and district officers. The sheriff and treasurer of any county shall not hold their respective offices for more than four years in succession.

Approved, September 22, 1933. 84207 to 62945.
