* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 6-05-06 of the 1985 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

6-05-06. Directors - Qualifications - Terms - Vacancies. All the corporate powers of such a corporation shall be exercised by a board of directors of not less than nine nor more than fifteen in number, and such officers and agents as it shall elect or appoint. A majority of the directors must be citizens of this state, and every director must own in his own right, free from hypothecation or pledge for any debt, at least ten shares of capital stock of the corporation of which he is a director, which said shares shall be known as "director's qualifying shares" and which shall be so marked across the face and retained ~~in~~ by the trust company, as provided in section 6-03-03 during the whole time that director continues in office, subject to inspection at all times by the commissioner or any authorized examiner. Any director who ceases to be the owner of ten shares of stock, free and nonhypothecated, or who becomes in any manner disqualified, shall vacate his office thereupon. Every director, when elected or appointed, shall take the oath specified in section 6-03-04. Such oath, subscribed by the director making it and certified by the officer before whom it was taken, shall be transmitted at once to the commissioner to be filed in ~~his~~ the commissioner's office. The articles of incorporation must state the names and residences of the first board of directors, of whom the first named one-third shall serve for a period of three years, the second one-third named for a period of two years, and the balance thereof shall serve for a period of one year from the date fixed for the commencement of such corporation. In case any of the persons so named ~~shall~~ do not become stockholders to the amount required to qualify, or if they fail or refuse to qualify from any cause, the directors who ~~shall~~ qualify must elect qualified stockholders to fill such vacancies, and thereafter, at each annual meeting of the stockholders, directors shall be elected to serve three years in place of those whose terms then ~~shall~~ expire.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 10-06-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

10-06-01. Farming or ranching by corporations prohibited - Retention of mineral interests prohibited. All corporations, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, are prohibited from owning or leasing land used for farming or ranching and from engaging in the business of farming or ranching. A corporation may be a partner in a partnership that is in the business of farming or ranching only if that corporation complies with this chapter. For land and minerals acquired after July 1, 1985, any corporation which acquires mineral interests through foreclosure or in lieu of foreclosure which were not specifically valued at the time the security interest in the minerals was acquired, and that is prohibited from owning or leasing land used in farming or ranching, is prohibited from retaining mineral interests in land used for farming or ranching when the corporation divests itself of the land, and the mineral interests must be passed with the surface estate of the land when the corporation divests itself of the land pursuant to this chapter. As used in this chapter, "corporation" includes any joint stock company or association.

A business corporation organized under chapter ~~10-19~~ 10-19.1 may convert to a farm corporation by adopting an amendment to its articles of incorporation. The amendment must specify that the corporation elects to be subject to this chapter, and the corporation does comply with all requirements of this chapter. The amendment must be filed with the prescribed fee and with the initial report required by section 10-06-07.3.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 10-19.1-92 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

3. In the case of a distribution made by a corporation in connection with a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of its shares, the effect of the distribution must be measured as of the date on which money or other property is transferred, or indebtedness payable in installments or otherwise is incurred, by the corporation, or as of the date on which the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder of the corporation with respect to the shares, whichever is the earliest. The effect of any other distribution must be measured as of the date of its authorization if payment occurs one hundred twenty days or less following the date of authorization, or as of the date of payment if payment occurs more than one hundred twenty days following the date of authorization. The provisions of chapter ~~13-02~~ 13-02.1 do not apply to distributions made by a corporation governed by this chapter.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-123 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Other than the chairman, no member of the council who serves a full five-year term shall be is eligible for reappointment during a one-year period following the expiration of his term. The governor shall designate a chairman and a vice chairman from the members of the council who shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the council. The members of the council shall may not receive any compensation for their services, but shall must be reimbursed for their travel expenses in the same manner and at the same rates as provided by law for other state officials for necessary travel in the performance of their duties as members of the council.

SECTION 35. AMENDMENT. Section 57-02-14 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

57-02-14. Valuation of real property exempt from taxation. At the time of making the assessment of real property in every odd-numbered year, the assessor shall enter in a separate list each description of property exempt by law, except property of the United States, or the state of North Dakota, or of any county or municipal corporation, and shall value it in the same manner as other property, designating in each case to whom such property belongs and for what purpose used.

SECTION 36. AMENDMENT. Section 57-11-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

57-11-03. Duties of board - Limitation on increase - Notice. At its meeting, the board of equalization shall proceed to equalize and correct the assessment roll. It may change the valuation and assessment of any real ~~or personal~~ property upon the roll by increasing or diminishing the assessed valuation thereof as shall be reasonable and just to render taxation uniform, except that the valuation of any property returned by the assessor shall not be increased more than twenty-five percent without first giving the owner or his agent notice of the intention of the board to increase it. The notice shall state the time when the board will be in session to act upon the matter and shall be given by personal notice served upon the owner or his agent or by leaving a copy at his last known place of residence.

SECTION 37. AMENDMENT. Section 57-23-08 of the 1985 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

57-23-08. Duties of county auditor and county commissioners after abatement action. After the granting of any application for abatement or refund or compromise of any tax, the county auditor shall correct all tax lists in accordance with the order of abatement or compromise, and the applicant shall be relieved of further liability for the tax abated or compromised. If the board of county commissioners disapproves any application for abatement or refund or compromise, in whole or in part, the reasons for disapproval shall be stated thereon and the applicant may appeal the rejection of the application for abatement or refund or compromise as provided by law. The county auditor, at the close of each calendar year, shall certify to the director of the state office of management and budget the amount of state taxes canceled by action of the board of county commissioners ~~or the tax appeals board~~ and the same shall be credited to the county.

SECTION 38. AMENDMENT. Section 57-28-18 of the 1985 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

57-28-18. Terms of private sale and redemption and distribution of proceeds. Any private sale of real property made between the annual November sales shall be made upon the same terms and conditions as a sale is authorized to be made at the November sale, except that when farmland is sold after the first of January such sale will be made subject to any existing farm lease of said land for the year in which such sale is made, and if such property is sold at private sale to any person other than the former owner, his executor or administrator, or any member of his immediate family, such sale shall be held in abeyance for a period of thirty days from the date of notice to the former owner, his executor or administrator, or any member of his immediate family, given by registered or certified mail by the county auditor, to his last known post-office address, or, if the post-office address is not known, then to the post office nearest the land, during which time the former owner, his executor or administrator, or any member of his immediate family, may make redemption by payment in full of the delinquent taxes, penalty, and interest charged against such real estate or the proposed sale price, whichever may be the lesser. If no redemption is made by the former owner, his executor or administrator, or any member of his immediate family, during said period of thirty days, then the sale shall be final and the purchaser shall be entitled to a deed as provided in this chapter. When farmlands are so redeemed after the first of January, such redemption will be made subject to any existing farm lease of said lands for the year in which such redemption is made. In case of the sale or contract for sale or redemption of tax deed land before the first of February, such land shall be assessed and taxed for the current year, and the purchaser or vendee or redemptioner shall be entitled to the rental and landlord's share of crops on such land for such year. In case of the sale or contract for purchase or redemption of tax deed land after ~~March~~ January thirty-first, the land shall not be assessed and taxed for the current year, and the county shall retain the rental and landlord's share of the crops thereon for that year. The proceeds realized from such sale shall be apportioned in the manner in which the proceeds of the annual November sale are distributed. The proceeds realized from any rental and landlord's share of the crops shall be apportioned in the manner in which other rental proceeds are distributed under the present law.

* SECTION 39. AMENDMENT. Section 57-38-30.3 of the 1985 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

57-38-30.3. Simplified optional method of computing tax.

1. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this chapter, an individual, estate, or trust may elect to determine state income tax liability by applying the provisions of this section. Any taxpayer electing to determine his income tax liability pursuant to this section shall only be eligible for those adjustments or credits which are specifically provided for in this section. Provided, that for purposes of this section, any person required to file a state income tax return pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, but who has not computed a federal taxable income or federal income tax liability figure shall compute such a federal taxable income figure using a pro forma return pursuant to the provisions of this section in order to determine a federal income tax liability figure

* NOTE: Section 57-38-30.3 was also amended by section 2 of House Bill No. 1901, chapter 695.

- to be used as a starting point in computing state income tax.
2. A tax is hereby imposed for each taxable year upon income earned or received in that taxable year by every resident and nonresident individual, estate, and trust. This tax shall be ten and one-half percent of the individual's, estate's, or trust's adjusted federal income tax liability for the taxable year.
  3. The adjusted federal income tax liability for a resident individual, estate, and trust shall be determined by multiplying the federal income tax liability by a fraction, the numerator of which is the adjusted gross income taxable to this state and the denominator of which is the total adjusted gross income as reported on the federal income tax return. Interest income from United States obligations and other income not taxable to this state because of federal statutes, United States or state constitutional provisions shall be excluded from the numerator.
  4. The adjusted federal income tax liability of a nonresident individual, estate, and trust shall be determined by multiplying the federal income tax liability by a fraction, the numerator of which is the adjusted gross income derived from sources within this state and the denominator of which is the total adjusted gross income as reported on the federal income tax return. Interest income from United States obligations and other income not taxable to this state because of federal statutes, United States or state constitutional provisions shall be excluded from the numerator.
  5. For the purposes of this section, the term "federal income tax liability" means the individual's, estate's, or trust's federal income tax liability as computed for federal income tax purposes using tax tables or schedule TC, plus additional taxes due on federal income tax schedules or forms 4970, 4972, 5544, 5405, section 72(m)(5) penalty tax, 4625, 6251, and 5329, and before credit for contributions to candidates for public office, credit for the elderly (schedule R&RP), credit for child and dependent care expenses (form 2441), investment credit (form 3468), foreign tax credit (form 1116), work incentive credit (form 4874), jobs credit (form 5884), residential energy credit (form 5695), and before reduction for federal income tax withheld, estimated payments, earned income credit, excess Federal Insurance Contributions Act (chapter 21 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended), and the federal Railroad Retirement Tax Act (chapter 22 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended), taxes withheld, credit for federal taxes on special fuels and oils, and regulated investment company credits. The term does not include amounts due for self-employment tax or social security tax and railroad retirement tax on tips. For purposes of this subsection, additional taxes due on federal income tax form 6251 shall be reduced, but not below zero, by the amount of any investment credit used to reduce the federal tax liability before calculation of the additional tax due on form 6251.

6. Where a husband and wife determine their federal income tax liability for the taxable year on a joint federal income tax return they may elect to determine their North Dakota income taxes separately. The federal income tax liability shall be apportioned between them in the proportion that the adjusted gross income of each bears to their combined adjusted gross income. The adjusted gross income of each shall be determined in the same way that each would have been required to determine it if they had filed separate federal income tax returns.
  - a. A resident individual, estate, or trust shall be allowed a credit against the tax otherwise due under this section for the amount of any income tax imposed on the taxpayer for the taxable year by another state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia on income derived from sources therein and which is also subject to tax under this section.
  - b. The credit provided under this subsection shall not exceed the proportion of the tax otherwise due under this section that the amount of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income derived from sources in the other taxing jurisdiction bears to the taxpayer's entire adjusted gross income as reported on the taxpayer's federal income tax return.
8. ~~An individual, estate, or trust shall be allowed as a credit against the tax otherwise due under this section the energy cost relief credit provided for in section 57-38-29-1.~~
- 9-
  - a. Individuals, estates, or trusts receiving a refund of federal income tax for a year for which an election to file state income tax returns has been made under this section shall file amended state income tax returns reducing the federal income tax liability for the year for which the federal income tax refund is granted and shall not report the federal income tax refund in the year received.
  - b. Individuals, estates, or trusts assessed additional federal income tax for a year for which an election to file state income tax returns has been made under this section shall file amended state income tax returns increasing the federal income tax liability for the year for which the additional federal income tax is assessed and shall not report increased federal income tax liability in the year in which the additional federal income tax is paid.

10- 9. The tax commissioner may prescribe procedures and guidelines to prevent requiring income that had been previously taxed under this chapter from becoming taxed again because of the provisions of this section and may prescribe procedures and guidelines to prevent any income from becoming exempt from taxation because of the provisions of this section if it would otherwise have been subject to taxation under the provisions of this chapter.

SECTION 40. AMENDMENT. Section 61-21-46 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

61-21-46. Maximum levy - Accumulation of fund. The levy in any year for cleaning out and repairing a drain shall not exceed one dollar and fifty cents per acre [.40 hectare] on any agricultural lands in the drainage district.

1. Agricultural lands which carried the highest assessment when the drain was originally established, or received the most benefits under a reassessment of benefits, may be assessed the maximum amount of one dollar and fifty cents per acre [.40 hectare]. The assessment of other agricultural lands in the district shall be based upon the proportion that the assessment of benefits at the time of construction or at the time of any reassessment of benefits bears to the assessment of the benefits of the agricultural land assessed the full one dollar and fifty cents per acre [.40 hectare]. Nonagricultural property shall be assessed such sum in any one year as the ~~rationing~~ ratio of the benefits under the original assessments or any reassessments bears to the assessment of agricultural land bearing the highest assessment.
2. Agricultural lands shall be assessed uniformly throughout the entire assessed area. Nonagricultural property shall be assessed an amount not to exceed one dollar for each five hundred dollars of taxable valuation of such nonagricultural property.

In case the maximum levy or assessment on agricultural and nonagricultural property for any year will not produce an amount sufficient to cover the cost of cleaning out and repairing such drain, the board may accumulate a fund in an amount not exceeding the sum produced by such maximum permissible levy for two years. If the cost of, or obligation for, the cleaning and repair of any drain shall exceed the total amount which can be levied by the board in any two-year period, the board shall obtain an affirmative vote of the majority of the landowners as determined by section 61-21-16 prior to obligating the district for such costs.

SECTION 41. AMENDMENT. Section 65-14-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

65-14-01. Employee information program. Each employer shall implement an employee information program designed to inform employees about hazardous substances to which they are exposed. This information must include the nature of the hazards, appropriate work practices, protective measures, and emergency procedures. "Hazardous substance" means a chemical or substance or mixture of chemicals or substances which is defined as a hazardous substance under the federal Comprehensive Environmental ~~Responses~~ Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended [Pub. L. 96-510; 94 Stat. 2767; 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq.] and meets or exceeds the listed reportable quantity for that substance.

SECTION 42. REPEAL. Section 35-20-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby repealed.
