

CHAPTER 43-17.4
INTERSTATE MEDICAL LICENSURE COMPACT

43-17.4-01. Interstate medical licensure compact.

ARTICLE I - PURPOSE

In order to strengthen access to health care, and in recognition of the advances in the delivery of health care, the member states of the interstate medical licensure compact have allied in common purpose to develop a comprehensive process that complements the existing licensing and regulatory authority of state medical boards and provides a streamlined process that allows physicians to become licensed in multiple states, thereby enhancing the portability of a medical license and ensuring the safety of patients. The compact creates another pathway for licensure and does not otherwise change a state's existing medical practice act. The compact also adopts the prevailing standard for licensure and affirms that the practice of medicine occurs where the patient is located at the time of the physician-patient encounter, and therefore, requires the physician to be under the jurisdiction of the state medical board where the patient is located. State medical boards that participate in the compact retain the jurisdiction to impose an adverse action against a license to practice medicine in that state issued to a physician through the procedures in the compact.

- 2. A physician who does not meet the requirements of subsection 11 of article II may obtain a license to practice medicine in a member state if the individual complies with all laws and requirements, other than the compact, relating to the issuance of a license to practice medicine in that state.

ARTICLE IV - DESIGNATION OF STATE OF PRINCIPAL LICENSE

- 1. A physician shall designate a member state as the state of principal license for purposes of registration for expedited licensure through the compact if the physician possesses a full and unrestricted license to practice medicine in that state, and the state is:

Static qualifications, which include verification of medical education, graduate medical education, results of any medical or licensing examination, and other qualifications as determined by the interstate commission through rule, may not be subject to additional primary source verification if already primary source verified by the state of principal license.
 - b. The member board within the state selected as the state of principal license shall, in the course of verifying eligibility, perform a criminal background check of an applicant, including the use of the results of fingerprint or other biometric data checks compliant with the requirements of the federal bureau of investigation, with the exception of federal employees who have suitability determination in accordance with title 5, Code of Federal Regulations, section 731.202.

 4. After receiving verification of eligibility under subsection 2 and any fees under subsection 3, a member board shall issue an expedited license to the physician. This license must authorize the physician to practice medicine in the issuing state consistent with the medical practice act and all applicable laws and regulations of the issuing member board and member state.
 5. An expedited license must be valid for a period consistent with the licensure period in the member state and in the same manner as required for other physicians holding a full and unrestricted license within the member state.
 6. An expedited license obtained through the compact must be terminated if a physician fails to maintain a license in the state of principal licensure for a nondisciplinary reason, without redesignation of a new state of principal licensure.
 7. The interstate commission may develop rules regarding the application process, including payment of any applicable fees, and the issuance of an expedited license.

ARTICLE VI - FEES FOR EXPEDITED LICENSURE

1. A member state issuing an expedited license authorizing the practice of medicine in that state may impose a fee for a license issued or renewed through the compact.
2. The interstate commission may develop rules regarding fees for expedited licenses.

5. Physician information collected by the interstate commission during the renewal process must be distributed to all member boards.
6. The interstate commission may develop rules to address renewal of licenses obtained through the compact.

3. A subpoena issued by a member state must be enforceable in other member states.
4. Member boards may share any investigative, litigation, or compliance materials in furtherance of any joint or individual investigation initiated under the compact.
5. Any member state may investigate actual or alleged violations of the statutes authorizing the practice of medicine in any other member state in which a physician holds a license to practice medicine.

ARTICLE X - DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

1. Any disciplinary action taken by any member board against a physician licensed through the compact must be deemed unprofessional conduct, which may be subject to discipline by other member boards, in addition to any violation of the medical practice act or regulations in that state.
2. If a license granted to a physician by the member board in the state of principal license is revoked, surrendered, or relinquished in lieu of discipline or suspended, all licenses issued to the physician by member boards must automatically be placed, without further action necessary by any member board, on the same status. If the member board in the state of principal license subsequently reinstates the physician's license, a license issued to the physician by any other member board must remain encumbered until that respective member board takes action to reinstate the license in a manner consistent with the medical practice act of that state.
3. If disciplinary action is taken against a physician by a member board not in the state of principal license, any other member board may deem the action conclusive as to matter of law and fact decided, and:
 - a. Impose the same or lesser sanction against the physician so long as such sanctions are consistent with the medical practice act of that state; or
 - b. Pursue separate disciplinary action against the physician under its respective medical practice act, regardless of the action taken in other member states.
4. If a license granted to a physician by a member board is revoked, surrendered, or relinquished in lieu of discipline, or suspended, any license issued to the physician by any other member board must be suspended, automatically and immediately without further action necessary by the other member board, for ninety days upon entry of the order by the disciplining board, to permit the member board to investigate the basis for the action under the medical practice act of that state. A member board may terminate the automatic suspension of the license it issued before the completion of the ninety-day suspension period in a manner consistent with the medical practice act of that state.

ARTICLE XI - INTERSTATE MEDICAL LICENSURE COMPACT COMMISSION

1. The member states hereby create the interstate medical licensure compact commission.
2. The purpose of the interstate commission is the administration of the interstate medical licensure compact, which is a discretionary state function.
3. The interstate commission must be a body corporate and joint agency of the member states and must have all the responsibilities, powers, and duties set forth in the compact, and such additional powers as may be conferred upon it by a subsequent concurrent action of the respective legislatures of the member states in accordance with the terms of the compact.
4. The interstate commission must consist of two voting representatives appointed by each member state who shall serve as commissioners. In states where allopathic and osteopathic physicians are regulated by separate member boards, or if the licensing and disciplinary authority is split between multiple member boards within a member state, the member state shall appoint one representative from each member board. A commissioner must be:
 - a. An allopathic or osteopathic physician appointed to a member board;
 - b. An executive director, executive secretary, or similar executive of a member board; or
 - c. A member of the public appointed to a member board.
5. The interstate commission shall meet at least once each calendar year. A portion of this meeting must be a business meeting to address such matters as may properly come before the commission, including the election of officers. The chairperson may call additional meetings and shall call for a meeting upon the request of a majority of the member states.
6. The bylaws may provide for meetings of the interstate commission to be conducted by telecommunication or electronic communication.
7. Each commissioner participating at a meeting of the interstate commission is entitled to one vote. A majority of commissioners constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business, unless a larger quorum is required by the bylaws of the interstate commission. A commissioner may not delegate a vote to another commissioner. In the absence of its commissioner, a member state may delegate voting authority for a specified meeting to another individual from that state who must meet the requirements of subsection 4.
8. The interstate commission shall provide public notice of all meetings and all meetings must be open to the public. The interstate commission may close a meeting, in full or in portion, if it determines by a two-thirds vote of the commissioners present that an open meeting would be likely to:
 - a. Relate solely to the internal personnel practices and procedures of the interstate commission;
 - b. Discuss matters specifically exempted from disclosure by federal statute;
 - c. Discuss trade secrets, commercial, or financial information that is privileged or confidential;
 - d. Involve accusing a person of a crime, or formally censuring a person;
 - e. Discuss information of a personal nature if disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
 - f. Discuss investigative records compiled for law enforcement purposes; or
 - g. Specifically relate to the participation in a civil action or other legal proceeding.
9. The interstate commission shall keep minutes that fully describe all matters discussed in a meeting and shall provide a full and accurate summary of actions taken, including record of any roll call votes.
10. The interstate commission shall make its information and official records, to the extent not otherwise designated in the compact or by its rules, available to the public for inspection.

11. The interstate commission shall establish an executive committee, which must include officers, members, and others as determined by the bylaws. The executive committee must have the power to act on behalf of the interstate commission, with the exception of rulemaking, during periods when the interstate commission is not in session. If acting on behalf of the interstate commission, the executive committee shall oversee the administration of the compact, including enforcement and compliance with the provisions of the compact, its bylaws and rules, and other such duties as necessary.
12. The interstate commission may establish other committees for governance and administration of the compact.

ARTICLE XII - POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION

11. Establish personnel policies and programs relating to conflicts of interest, rates of compensation, and qualifications of personnel;
12. Accept donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials, and services, and to receive, utilize, and dispose of it in a manner consistent with the conflict of interest policies established by the interstate commission;
13. Lease, purchase, accept contributions or donations of, or otherwise to own, hold, improve, or use, any property, real, personal, or mixed;
14. Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, abandon, or otherwise dispose of any property, real, personal, or mixed;
15. Establish a budget and make expenditures;
16. Adopt a seal and bylaws governing the management and operation of the interstate commission;

18. Coordinate education, training, and public awareness regarding the compact, its implementation, and its operation;
19. Maintain records in accordance with the bylaws;
20. Seek and obtain trademarks, copyrights, and patents; and

ARTICLE XIII - FINANCE POWERS

1. The interstate commission may levy on and collect an annual assessment from each member state to cover the cost of the operations and activities of the interstate commission and its staff. The total assessment must be sufficient to cover the annual budget approved each year for which revenue is not provided by other sources. The aggregate annual assessment amount must be allocated upon a formula to be determined by the interstate commission, which shall promulgate a rule binding upon all member states.

2. The interstate commission may not incur obligations of any kind before securing the funds adequate to meet the same.
3. The interstate commission may not pledge the credit of any of the member states, except by, and with the authority of, the member state.
4. The interstate commission must be subject to a yearly financial audit conducted by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit must be included in the annual report of the interstate commission.

ARTICLE XIV - ORGANIZATION AND OPERATION OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION

1. The interstate commission shall, by a majority of commissioners present and voting, adopt bylaws to govern its conduct as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of the compact within twelve months of the first interstate commission meeting.
2. The interstate commission shall elect or appoint annually from among its commissioners a chairperson, a vice chairperson, and a treasurer, each of whom must have such authority and duties as may be specified in the bylaws. The chairperson, or in the chairperson's absence or disability, the vice chairperson, shall preside at all meetings of the interstate commission.
3. Officers selected in subsection 2 shall serve without remuneration from the interstate commission.
4. The officers and employees of the interstate commission must be immune from suit and liability, either personally or in their official capacity, for a claim for damage to or loss of property or personal injury or other civil liability caused or arising out of, or relating to, an actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred, or that such individual had a reasonable basis for believing occurred, within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities; provided that such individual may not be protected from suit or liability for damage, loss, injury, or liability caused by the intentional or willful and wanton misconduct of such individual.
 - a. The liability of the executive director and employees of the interstate commission or representatives of the interstate commission, acting within the scope of such individual's employment or duties for acts, errors, or omissions occurring within such individual's state, may not exceed the limits of liability set forth under the constitution and laws of that state for state officials, employees, and agents. The interstate commission is considered to be an instrumentality of the states for the purposes of any such action. This subsection may not be construed to protect such individual from suit or liability for damage, loss, injury, or liability caused by the intentional or willful and wanton misconduct of such individual.
 - b. The interstate commission shall defend the executive director, its employees, and subject to the approval of the attorney general or other appropriate legal counsel of the member state represented by an interstate commission representative, shall defend such interstate commission representative in any civil action seeking to impose liability arising out of an actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, or that the defendant had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, provided that the actual or alleged act, error, or omission did not result from intentional or willful and wanton misconduct on the part of such individual.
 - c. To the extent not covered by the state involved, member state, or the interstate commission, the representatives, or employees of the interstate commission must be held harmless in the amount of a settlement or judgment, including attorney's fees and costs, obtained against such individuals arising out of an actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, or that such individuals had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, provided that the actual or alleged act, error, or omission did not result from intentional or willful and wanton misconduct on the part of such individuals.

ARTICLE XV - RULEMAKING FUNCTIONS OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION

1. The interstate commission shall promulgate reasonable rules in order to effectively and efficiently achieve the purposes of the compact. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the interstate commission exercises its rulemaking authority in a manner that is beyond the scope of the purposes of the compact, or the powers granted under the compact, such an action by the interstate commission must be invalid and have no force or effect.
2. Rules deemed appropriate for the operations of the interstate commission must be made pursuant to a rulemaking process that substantially conforms to the model state administrative procedure act of 2010, and subsequent amendments thereto.
3. Not later than thirty days after a rule is promulgated, any person may file a petition for judicial review of the rule in the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the interstate commission has its principal offices, provided that the filing of such a petition may not stay or otherwise prevent the rule from becoming effective unless the court finds that the petitioner has a substantial likelihood of success. The court shall give deference to the actions of the interstate commission consistent with applicable law and may not find the rule to be unlawful if the rule represents a reasonable exercise of the authority granted to the interstate commission.

ARTICLE XVI - OVERSIGHT OF INTERSTATE COMPACT

1. The executive, legislative, and judicial branches of state government in each member state shall enforce the compact and shall take all actions necessary and appropriate to effectuate the compact's purposes and intent. The provisions of the compact and the rules promulgated under the compact must have standing as statutory law but may not override existing state authority to regulate the practice of medicine.
2. All courts shall take judicial notice of the compact and the rules in any judicial or administrative proceeding in a member state pertaining to the subject matter of the compact which may affect the powers, responsibilities, or actions of the interstate commission.
3. The interstate commission must be entitled to receive all service of process in any such proceeding, and must have standing to intervene in the proceeding for all purposes. Failure to provide service of process to the interstate commission renders a judgment or order void as to the interstate commission, the compact, or promulgated rules.

ARTICLE XVII - ENFORCEMENT OF INTERSTATE COMPACT

1. The interstate commission, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, shall enforce the provisions and rules of the compact.
2. The interstate commission may, by majority vote of the commissioners, initiate legal action in the United States district court for the District of Columbia, or, at the discretion of the interstate commission, in the federal district where the interstate commission has its principal offices, to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact, and its promulgated rules and bylaws, against a member state in default. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. If judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party must be awarded all costs of such litigation including reasonable attorney's fees.
3. The remedies in this chapter may not be the exclusive remedies of the interstate commission. The interstate commission may avail itself of any other remedies available under state law or the regulation of a profession.

ARTICLE XVIII - DEFAULT PROCEDURES

1. The grounds for default, include failure of a member state to perform such obligations or responsibilities imposed upon it by the compact or the rules and bylaws of the interstate commission promulgated under the compact.

2. If the interstate commission determines a member state has defaulted in the performance of its obligations or responsibilities under the compact, or the bylaws or promulgated rules, the interstate commission shall:
 - a. Provide written notice to the defaulting state and other member states, of the nature of the default, the means of curing the default, and any action taken by the interstate commission. The interstate commission shall specify the conditions by which the defaulting state must cure its default; and
 - b. Provide remedial training and specific technical assistance regarding the default.
3. If the defaulting state fails to cure the default, the defaulting state must be terminated from the compact upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the commissioners and all rights, privileges, and benefits conferred by the compact must terminate on the effective date of termination. A cure of the default does not relieve the offending state of obligations or liabilities incurred during the period of the default.
4. Termination of membership in the compact must be imposed only after all other means of securing compliance have been exhausted. Notice of intent to terminate must be given by the interstate commission to the governor, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature, and each of the member states.
5. The interstate commission shall establish rules and procedures to address licenses and physicians that are materially impacted by the termination of a member state or the withdrawal of a member state.
6. The member state that has been terminated is responsible for all dues, obligations, and liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination, including obligations the performance of which extends beyond the effective date of termination.
7. The interstate commission may not bear any costs relating to any state that has been found to be in default or which has been terminated from the compact, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing between the interstate commission and the defaulting state.
8. The defaulting state may appeal the action of the interstate commission by petitioning the United States district court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the interstate commission has its principal offices. The prevailing party must be awarded all costs of such litigation including reasonable attorney's fees.

ARTICLE XIX - DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. The interstate commission shall attempt, upon the request of a member state, to resolve disputes that are subject to the compact and which may arise among member states or member boards.
2. The interstate commission shall promulgate rules providing for both mediation and binding dispute resolution as appropriate.

ARTICLE XX - MEMBER STATES, EFFECTIVE DATE, AND AMENDMENT

1. Any state is eligible to become a member state of the compact.
2. The compact must become effective and binding upon legislative enactment of the compact into law by no less than seven states. Thereafter, the compact must become effective and binding on a state upon enactment of the compact into law by that state.
3. The governors of nonmember states, or their designees, must be invited to participate in the activities of the interstate commission on a nonvoting basis before adoption of the compact by all states.
4. The interstate commission may propose amendments to the compact for enactment by the member states. An amendment may not become effective and binding upon the interstate commission and the member states unless and until it is enacted into law by unanimous consent of the member states.

ARTICLE XXI - WITHDRAWAL

1. Once effective, the compact must continue in force and remain binding upon each and every member state, provided that a member state may withdraw from the compact by specifically repealing the statute that enacted the compact into law.
2. Withdrawal from the compact must be by the enactment of a statute repealing the same, but may not take effect until one year after the effective date of such statute and until written notice of the withdrawal has been given by the withdrawing state to the governor of each other member state.

3. The withdrawing state shall immediately notify the chairperson of the interstate commission in writing upon the introduction of legislation repealing the compact in the withdrawing state.
4. The interstate commission shall notify the other member states of the withdrawing state's intent to withdraw within sixty days of its receipt of notice provided under subsection 3.
5. The withdrawing state is responsible for all dues, obligations, and liabilities incurred through the effective date of withdrawal, including obligations, the performance of which extend beyond the effective date of withdrawal.
6. Reinstatement following withdrawal of a member state must occur upon the withdrawing state reenacting the compact or upon such later date as determined by the interstate commission.
7. The interstate commission may develop rules to address the impact of the withdrawal of a member state on licenses granted in other member states to physicians who designated the withdrawing member state as the state of principal license.

ARTICLE XXII - DISSOLUTION

1. The compact shall dissolve effective upon the date of the withdrawal or default of the member state which reduces the membership in the compact to one member state.
2. Upon the dissolution of the compact, the compact becomes null and void and must be of no further force or effect, and the business and affairs of the interstate commission must be concluded and surplus funds must be distributed in accordance with the bylaws.

ARTICLE XXIII - SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

1. The provisions of the compact must be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision is deemed unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the compact must be enforceable.
2. The provisions of the compact must be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes.
3. The compact may not be construed to prohibit the applicability of other interstate compacts to which the states are members.

ARTICLE XXIV - BINDING EFFECT OF COMPACT AND OTHER LAWS

1. This chapter does not prevent the enforcement of any other law of a member state that is not inconsistent with the compact.
2. All laws in a member state in conflict with the compact are superseded to the extent of the conflict.
3. All lawful actions of the interstate commission, including all rules and bylaws promulgated by the commission, are binding upon the member states.
4. All agreements between the interstate commission and the member states are binding in accordance with their terms.
5. If any provision of the compact exceeds the constitutional limits imposed on the legislature of any member state, such provision must be ineffective to the extent of the conflict with the constitutional provision in question in that member state.
