

TESTIMONY OF

Molly Herrington, Chief People Officer, Human Resource Management Service (HRMS)

Chairman Pyle and members of the Administrative Rules Committee, I am Molly Herrington, Chief People Officer with HRMS, a division of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), and the State Personnel Board. Today we would like to request adoption of revised Administrative Rules for OMB on pages 2-4 of your booklet.

HRMS will be amending rules of the division relating to the following chapters of North Dakota Administrative Code (N.D.A.C.) Article 4-07. Specifically, we are addressing the changes to N.D.A.C. 4-07-20.1, which deals with the appeals of employer actions.

As you may recall, we initially sought to adopt these amendments during the Sept. 6 meeting. We received feedback from the committee that prompted us to revise N.D.A.C. 4-07-20.1 in partnership with our legal counsel. The main purpose of these amendments is to ensure that the appeal process is fair, transparent, and timely for all parties involved. The appeal of employer actions is a legal proceeding that requires strict adherence to the timeline outlined in N.D.A.C. 4-07-20.1. Therefore, it is essential that we have a clear and consistent way of tracking the dates of the notices and responses that are sent and received by mail or electronically. The removal of the term "delivered" from the rule is not intended to diminish customer service or deny government services, but rather to establish a reliable and verifiable timeline for the appeal process.

Chairman Pyle, that concludes my testimony. I would be happy to address any questions.
