This amendment also:

- Adds a section to provide a 2017-19 biennium appropriation of $8.1 million to the State Treasurer to provide distributions to townships in non-oil-producing counties for road and bridge maintenance and improvements.
- Adds a section to reduce the state share of oil and gas taxes deposited in the state disaster relief fund from $20 million to $15 million.
- Removes a section added by the Senate to provide an exemption to allow approximately $80,000 appropriated from the state disaster relief fund for road grade raising projects to be continued into the 2019-21 biennium.
- Removes a section added by the Senate to provide an exemption to allow approximately $3.9 million appropriated from the state disaster relief fund for unclosed state disasters to be continued into the 2019-21 biennium. The House appropriated the additional funding for the 2019-21 biennium.
