

Senate Rule 204. Preparation of the journal.

1. Upon completion of the Senate journal for a legislative day, the Secretary shall deliver to the printer having the contract for printing the legislative journals a complete copy of the Senate journal.
2. Before the Senate goes into session again, the Committee on Correction and Revision of the Journal shall carefully examine and review the journal of the previous legislative day. The committee shall note any errors or omissions and report the errors or omissions to the Senate for action.
3. The printer shall set aside twenty-four copies of the daily journal. Upon termination of the legislative session, the printer shall deliver these copies to the contract binder, who shall assemble the copies into twenty-four sets of permanent journals.
4. The permanent journals must be bound in hard covers and deposited with the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall preserve two sets and attach the Secretary of State's certificate to those sets showing the date of delivery and attesting that the copies are identical and official journals as delivered to the Secretary of State. From the remaining sets, the Secretary of State shall forward one set to the Supreme Court Library, one set to the Law School Library at the University of North Dakota, eight sets to the State Library, three sets to the Legislative Council, one set to the Secretary of the Senate, and one set to each judicial district as determined by the presiding judge of the district. The number of sets set aside in subsection 3 and delivered to the State Library may be reduced by five if the State Library is authorized to accept copies of the journals in an electronic format.

House Rule 204. Preparation of the journal.

1. Upon completion of the House journal for a legislative day, the Chief Clerk shall deliver to the printer having the contract for printing the legislative journals a complete copy of the House journal.
2. Before the House goes into session again, the Committee on Correction and Revision of the Journal shall carefully examine and review the journal of the previous legislative day. The committee shall note any errors or omissions and report the errors or omissions to the House for action.
3. The printer shall set aside twenty-four copies of the daily journal. Upon termination of the legislative session, the printer shall deliver these copies to the contract binder, who shall assemble the copies into twenty-four sets of permanent journals.
4. The permanent journals must be bound in hard covers and be deposited with the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall preserve two sets and attach the Secretary of State's certificate to those sets showing the date of delivery and attesting that the copies are identical and official journals as delivered to the Secretary of State. From the remaining sets, the Secretary of State shall forward one set to the Supreme Court Library, one set to the Law School Library at the University of North Dakota, eight sets to the State Library, three sets to the Legislative Council, one set to the Chief Clerk, and one set to each judicial district as determined by the presiding judge of the district. The number of sets set aside in subsection 3 and delivered to the State Library may be reduced by five if the State Library is authorized to accept copies of the journals in an electronic format.